Push! Push! Push!

It's push! push! push!—a little beyond what Nature intended or can stand, that ruins so many eyes. Work never kills. It's overwork—neglect—drain, that injures any organ of the human system.
The man of middle life no longer able to read with ease and comfort at the ordinary reading distance—the man who foolishly rubs his eyes the night when they thus demand it, is pushing himself into serious trouble, from which a properly adjusted glass would now save him.
If you think you require glasses don't buy until you have consulted us.

COACH LEAVES THE TRACK.

An Accident on the Central Ontario Railway.

The Derailed Cars Pulled for Some Distance—Fortunately no Person Was Injured.

On Friday last the passengers on the p.m. mail train from Picton had a most thrilling experience a few miles west of Wellington, where the coach left the rails, and tearing through the road-bed for about a hundred yards nearly turned over on its side. Conductor Shannon, who was engaged with his duties in the baggage department at the time, heard the coach crashing through the ties, and with the presence of mind and speed of a fireman, bringing the train to a stop in an incredibly short distance. Within the coach a perfect pandemonium of confusion reigned for a time, as the passengers, stunned, bruised and perfectly panic-stricken, rushed over one another in their efforts to escape from the fatally overturned car. After a short delay the passengers and luggage were transferred to the baggage car and conveyed to Trenton.

MR. GEO. A. BROWNE DEAD

A Former Well Known Resident of Deseronto.

A Montreal despatch of the 2nd inst. says: Mr. George A. Browne, the manager of the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company, died last night at Abolition City, where he had recently gone on a health-reviving trip. Mr. Browne was only forty years of age, and leaves a widow and family residing in Montreal. He succeeded the late Mr. Alex. Millar three years ago, and was well known as an authority upon trade matters. The body will be brought to Montreal to-morrow, and the funeral will take place from his late residence in this city.

Mr. Browne was well known in this city. He was for some time Manager of the Deseronto Navigation Company and resided for some time in Deseronto.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

That this weather makes the coal men smile. That even the grass is having its "devery" days.
That a most interesting subject just now is a Boer—as a rule quiet thimble.
That the only thing that comes between the "Cradle, Marriage and the Tomb" is an occasional divorce.
That our oldest contemporary, in an endeavor to be ahead of time, had a date line last night which read "November 2nd."

CITY AND DISTRICT

The market to-day was only fairly attended.
In police circles to-day everything was very quiet.
The sergeants of the X.V. Battalion will meet at their mess room this evening.
A very interesting column of local news will be found on our second page.
On Sunday a boy captured a young owl in the pine grove on the western outskirts of the City.

Division Court was held here to-day, presided over by Judge Frazer. A number of cases were disposed of.

Mr. Arthur Mallet, an aged and respected yeoman of Huntingdon Township, died yesterday aged 85 years.

COLLIDED WITH TELEGRAPH POLE.

A Resident of Stirling Receives Painful Injuries.

Shortly after 8 o'clock last evening a Mr. H. Warren, who resides in the village of Stirling, was driving along the Macdonald road, when near Fairfield's bridge he met with a serious accident. He was driving a horse attached to a buggy, and in turning out to allow another vehicle to pass coming in an opposite direction the horse collided violently with a telegraph pole, smashing the buggy and precipitating Mr. Warren to the ground. Upon examination it was found the unfortunate man was seriously injured and remained for some time. He was conveyed to a residence near by and medical assistance summoned from Foxboro.

Quinto Musical Club.

The newly elected officers of the Quinto Musical Club last evening entertained the members and a few friends. A most enjoyable time was spent by those who were attended. The proceedings were culminated by songs rendered by Mr. Geo. McLeod, of Montreal, and Messrs. N. Doyle and F. Brantford, of this City. During the evening refreshments were served.

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade as J. S. McKee's Drug store, which is giving along the line of their trade in many of the most popular of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous. It is that it always comes and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup and all throat and lung troubles are quickly getting a trial bottle free, large size 50c, and $1.00. Every bottle warranted.

Finger Crushed.

H. Thompson, an employee of Mr. Wm. McGee, yesterday afternoon was sustaining in placing a radiator in position at Mr. H. Corry's elevator, when the radiator fell and crushed one of Thompson's fingers.

PLUCKY FELLOWS.

Former Bellvillians on the "Scotsman" Arrive in Toronto.

Those who knew our former townsmen, Messrs. F. S. and H. R. Pearce, have watched with interest for any details in connection with the wreck of the "Scotsman" at Bella Isle, anticipating that if saved they would be found amongst the plucky, self-sacrificing ones who would be willing to risk their own lives to save or help others.

Yesterday's Toronto Mail and Empire contains the following interview with them:

Messrs. F. S. and H. R. Pearce, 14 Prince Arthur avenue, were among the first cabin passengers on the wrecked "Scotsman" and arrived home yesterday. They lost everything of value, including two first-class bicycles. In conversation with a Mail and Empire reporter yesterday Mr. F. S. Pearce stated that in the panic which seized the crew as a whole was being unfairly discriminated against. The disgruntled crew, who were subjected to a portion of the crew, aided and abetted by several choice spirits in the first volunteer corps to make the trip to the lighthouse. The journey had to be made over an untrodden path, covered with ice and snow. The Messrs. Pearce covered the distance three times. Mr. Pearce is at a loss to understand how the ladies bore up under the privations and hardships to which they were subjected. For the most part they were well thinned, and the nights were bitterly cold. For Mr. Pearce, he said, did much to revive the drooping spirits of the shipwrecked passengers. The first night on the plateau he offered up prayer, and led in singing "Nearer My God, to Thee." A few drunken sailors interrupted the proceedings with risqué songs, but despite these discordant elements the service was of a devout character, and proved a source of inspiration to the faint and weary passengers. In making the trip to the lighthouse Father Longmore broke down, but with a little encouragement and assistance he was able to finish the journey. Mr. H. R. Pearce took several photographs of the wreck, but much to his chagrin, he found that every one of the plates he took the views were useless. Mr. Westbridge, of the "Sign of the Cross" Company, secured a number of excellent views of the wreck.

50 MORE SAID TO BE MISSING

Fears That Scotsman's Death List Will Be Increased.

Nearly all the wreckage taken on and conveyed to St. John's, Nfld.—Most of it undamaged—officers' censured for not having taken precautions. Even if there had been no shooting.

Montreal, Oct. 3.—The latest stories told by the survivors of the ill-fated Scotsman, who have arrived in the Montreal, would lead to the impression that the death list from the terrible disaster may be much larger than at first anticipated. From all accounts there are yet quite a number of passengers scattered around on the island who may be dying of hunger and exposure. The passengers who came up the first launch came up in four cases, and it seems there must be about 50 still unaccounted for. These people, it is believed, were somewhere between the wreck and the light house when the other passengers were taken ashore. Many are believed to have fallen from fatigue and exposure, while others have been killed by the terrible stretch of rocks and bogs to the light house.

Word was received by the Dominion Line from St. John's, Nfld., that nearly all the wreckage had been taken from the wreck on Wednesday, the day after the Montreal left, and was put on schooners and taken to St. John's. Owing to the extreme list of the Scotsman, the greater part of the wreckage is untouched by water, and will be returned to the owners in the best of condition. A good deal of the remainder is only partly damaged. This wreckage will be forwarded to Montreal immediately, and delivered to its owners as soon as possible.

Officers Severely Blamed. London, Oct. 3.—(Montreal Star's special).—Much air has been created in the press by the Scotsman's revelations, and The St. James' Gazette calls it one of the most unpleasant instances of ruffianism that has occurred in recent years. The officers of the Scotsman are blamed for not maintaining discipline, even though some shooting was necessary. The Gazette admits that the closest official duty is absolutely essential. The Westminster Gazette says that men who could act as these men acted, deserve no mercy. It is to be hoped they will get none. The moral applied is that the Government cannot with impunity allow the gallant jack tar of former years to be ousted from the mercantile marine by such such as seemingly formed so large a portion of the crew of the Scotsman.

Twelve More Arrested. The official list published last evening of the Scotsman loss, gives 11 "trovred" their names having been previously published. The missing are: Mrs. Bates and three doubtful.

POLITICIANS UNITE ON THE

It is not often political parties find common ground on which to meet. Their differences are mostly rich in discord. But we have an exception in the case of the celebrated Souvenir Kitchen Range. Laurier and Tupper, Hardy and Whitney, are of one mind on this subject.

"And now Hardy, Tupper, and Laurier too, use the Souvenir Range for political work. All agree except through its fire ventilation. And good wholesome food now blesses the nation."

The strong point of the Souvenir stove is its aerated oven, which makes cooking a success under any circumstances; and the good nature of the politician—as well as the cook—is soon restored when a Souvenir stove is installed in the kitchen.

A neat booklet entitled "Kitchen Wisdom," with illustrations by J. W. Bengough and J. S. Gordon, is yours for the asking, and it tells you a good deal about the Aerated Oven.

Sir Henri Joly May Be Special High Commissioner to Paris.

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—The Railway Committee of the Privy Council is called for Friday, when two appeals will be heard, one concerning a crossing in Manitoba, and the other the Erie and Lake Huron Railway's appeal for running rights over the Canada Southern.

A rumor is current that Sir Henri Joly has been offered the position of Canadian Special High Commissioner to the Paris Exposition with a Senatorship in prospect. Should Sir Henri accept, the portfolio of Inland Revenue will be at Sir Wilfrid Laurier's disposal. It is said that this will again get a Quebec Government supporter, and the name of Mr. Raymond Prefontaine, Mayor of Montreal, is mentioned as the possible recipient of the portfolio.

Scotsman Ruffians Arrested.

Liverpool, Oct. 3.—On arrival here yesterday from Queenstown, the police arrested twelve drunken members of the British steamer Scotsman, which was wrecked Sept. 21st in the Straits of Belle Isle, while bound from Liverpool to Montreal, on the charge of looting the passengers' cabins on board the Scotsman.

A Wrecking Outfit.

Quebec, Oct. 3.—A cablegram has been received by the Dominion Steamship Company's representative here to the effect that a fully-equipped wrecking schooner has started from the other side for the Straits of Belle Isle. It is believed that the trip can be made in from six to eight days. The representative in Quebec of the cablegram received from the other side to secure a schooner and all plant necessary, and set out as soon as possible for the scene of the wreck of the steamship Scotsman, with a view of ascertaining if anything could be done towards lifting the vessel.

September Revenue From Customs Increased Over Last Year.

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—The Customs revenue of the Dominion for the month of September has gone up like a rocket. It is unprecedented in the history of the Dominion. When it topped the two million mark in September, 1898, it was considered good, but last September was still over a half million better. All the returns of the revenue for the month, which closed on Saturday last, have been received at the Customs Department. The revenue for September, 1899, was $2,030,550, compared with $2,086,652 for September, 1898, an increase for last month of $524,098.

BELLE ISLE TELEGRAPH.

A Line Could Have Been Completed Had Not Preference Been Given to Party Workers.

Montreal, Oct. 2.—(Special).—The sad disaster to the Scotsman at Belle Isle has more than ever brought the question of telegraph communication with the islanders and the people before the public. Most people think that more than another year will have passed away before the Government telegraph system reaches the Belle Isle islanders.

From St. John's, the present terminal point of the cable can be laid to Belle Isle, and thence to the islanders. The cable would cost $100,000, and the expense of the line would be $100,000 per year.

Party Workers.

In the first place, they are paying friends of the party at per cent 20 feet long, taking 40 feet to cover a mile, while it costs in addition $100,000 per foot for taking them across the Labrador shore. Once on the shore the telegraph line is carried by the coast guard to the shore, and then by the coast guard to the shore.

But many people will be surprised to learn that the telegraph system of the coast guard, two years ago, was completed. The extension of the telegraph system to the islanders would cost $100,000, and the expense of the line would be $100,000 per year.

THIRTY YEARS AGO.
Some of the News Published in the Intelligencer of That Date.
Prince Arthur arrived in Belleville and was presented with an address at the station. The 15th Batt., the Grand Trunk Rifles and Belleville Rifles, were present as a guard of honor, and Lieut. Col. Campbell was presented to the Prince. A serious accident happened. A royal salute was fired on the arrival of the Prince's train, and the cannon burst, a piece about six pounds in weight striking Mr. Arthur Wensley in the groin. The paper says that at the time of writing there was little hope of his recovery. However, Mr. Wensley is alive to-day, and will smile when he thinks how near they had buried thirty years ago.

Overcoat Time, Overcoat Talk
When you buy an overcoat you want it to come up to several pre-conceived ideas of what an overcoat should be. Above all things it should be dressy, all wool, fast color, the cloth must be good, the fur collar, to say the least, the fit must be perfect, and the price must be reasonable. Quick & Robertson have an overcoat for you that will meet all these requirements.

That at tonight's Committee meetings the members will do well to bear in mind that the question of our sidewalks is at present uppermost in the minds of most of our population. There is no need to enlarge on the state of affairs—everybody understands it. When some of our elderly residents complain that they are afraid to go out at night for fear they will sprain their limbs or break their bones, it is time something was done and done speedily.

That the scorching who knocked down the little girl at the corner of Victoria avenue and Church at yesterday afternoon school, stands in the past, whereas some of our elderly residents complain that they are afraid to go out at night for fear they will sprain their limbs or break their bones, it is time something was done and done speedily.

RUN DOWN BY A BRUTE.

Little Girl Severely Injured by a Scorching.
Shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon a seven-year-old daughter of Mr. Geo. Kutan was knocked down by a bicyclist at the corner of Victoria avenue and Church street. The child was on its way home from school, and was going across the street when the accident occurred. The little one was badly hurt, one of her knees being injured to such an extent as to cause her to be unable to walk. She was also bruised about the body. Who the party was that was riding the wheel is not known, and he was not gentleman enough to stop and ascertain if the girl was injured or not, but made off as rapidly as possible. To-day the girl was suffering considerable pain.

promise to be the theatrical society event of the early season. The summer sojourners are long since back in town and the significant fact is evident that among those taking part are some of Belleville most esteemed members of society. The concert, coming as it does in the most pleasurable and convenient season, immediately before the beginning of numerous functions which usher in the winter's busy round of social entertainment. So far there has been little in the amusement line to attract society. It will be some time, perhaps, before many of those taking part in this concert will be heard in this city again, some of the singers making their farewell appearance for the season at this concert, which will be a unique and a demonstration of Belleville's artistic possibilities, both in the sense of creation and of interpretation. A great deal of curiosity is abroad in view of the fact that it will be the first M. B. Concert ever given in Belleville—perhaps in Ontario.

Starving Children.
Thousands of well fed children are starving, simply because their food is not of the right kind. It is not the quantity, but the quality. Scott's Emulsion will change all this. It gives vim and vigor, flesh and force.

A Madoc Village Mine.
Madoc Ravine: We are informed that Messrs. A. B. Ross and A. F. Wood have had a test shaft sunk on their property at the warehouse to the depth of twelve or fourteen feet. A well defined vein of ore was found of about 24 feet in width, south of the warehouse, running into the hill to the west. The appearance indicated copper. Ore was submitted to the Provincial Assayer at Belleville, with a report of $9.65 copper and $1.55 gold, over $11 per ton. In the exploration a deposit of yellow pulverized matter was found, which the assayer reports as a good sample of the ore used in commerce and worth attention. The facilities for work could not be better. Mr. A. B. Ross is giving it personal attention.

DANIEL GROW'S DISCHARGE.

Given by Adjutant-General de Rottenburg Over Sixty Years Ago.
Everybody who lives on the Front of Thurlow knows Mr. Daniel Grow. Tall and straight as an arrow, the old gentleman bears his 83 years jauntily, and looks to talk of the stirring times of '37. He thinks it a hardship that there are no medals for the survivors of 1837, and, to tell the truth, it does look strange when you come to look at it. Mr. Grow at present lives with Mr. Knox, and finds gardening work quite to his liking, in spite of his advanced age. He walks into Belleville at least once every week. Following is a facsimile of Mr. Grow's discharge:
The bearer hereof, Daniel Grow, Private of Captain McLennan's Company, First Hastings Regiment Militia, is hereby discharged from Her Majesty's Service, by authority of His Excellency, the Lieutenant-Governor, having served from 12th November, 1837, to 25th April, 1839, as a volunteer and performed his duty as a faithful and loyal subject, and in a very creditable and soldierlike manner.
DE ROTTERBURG,
Adj.-General,
Belleville, 25th April, 1839.

Their Business Booming.
Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at J. S. McKee's as the drug store as their giving away to their many customers of so many first bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous, in this very valuable remedy, from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, hoarseness, all the life lung troubles are quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size 50c and $1.00. Every bottle warranted.

A MURDERED MAN

Gave Mr. Henry Duke a Startling Experience

On Wednesday Morning Last—Evidently Robbery Was Meditated, but the Mysterious Visitor Was Taken Unaware and Made Off.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Mr. Henry Duke, of Harmond, a night watchman on the bridge, had a somewhat startling experience on Wednesday morning at 3:30. He was on his tour in the watch house as usual, and at the above hour had occasion to go out doors, as he says, to get a breath of the cool morning breeze to brace himself up a bit, as he was feeling a little drowsy.

When he stepped out of the door a strange sight met his gaze.

Under the lamp which hangs alongside of the tollhouse stood a tall man dressed in dark clothes, with a long black mask over his face.

It is safe to say that at that moment no more startled man than Mr. Duke could follow him, as he could not leave the bridge.

As he ran he made a peculiar hissing noise and shuffled with his feet, which, Mr. Duke thinks, was a preconcerted signal to his confederates that the game was up.

The man ran off and passed through Capt. Gero's gate. Mr. Duke could not follow him, as he could not leave the bridge.

Overcoat Time, Overcoat Talk

When you buy an overcoat you want it to come up to several preconceived ideas of what an overcoat should be. Above all things it should be dressy, all wool, fast color, the cloth must be good, the finish perfect, and, in the least, the price moderate. Quick & Robertson have an overcoat for you that will meet all these requirements.

A Regretted Departure.

Belleville will shortly lose a most admired and charming singer, Miss Katharine Ward, who leaves for New York on Oct. 17. This fact will be a source of regret to all who are fond of her music.

It is a great deal of time to write, for she is a young artist of infinite promise, having a contralto voice of surpassing loveliness and being gifted with a very good sense of interpretation. The contralto voice is one capable of great expression and beauty of tone; but Miss Ward is an organ of extraordinary power and clearness of voice, sympathy and coloring.

In addition she has a very charming stage presence, a thorough musical education (being an associate of Toronto College of Music), an infallible artistic judgment and intelligence and a dramatic talent of high order. She could not be better equipped for the success which undoubtedly awaits her in the great world.

It is a remarkable fact that, although Miss Ward is one of the best contraltos in Canada, she has not often been heard here in Belleville, her home. Wherever she has appeared, however, she has been received with extraordinary enthusiasm. Miss Ward will be heard for the last time this season at the Mansueto Concerts next Thursday evening when she will sing "The Night of a Thousand Eyes" (Love's Day), and her most brilliant composition, a dashing Scotch ballad song called "Savills Nights."

THE MAYOR'S MESSAGE

Montreal Star Asks the Opinions of Canadian Players on the Question of a Canadian Contingent.

Major Johnson last night received the following message from the Montreal Star:

We are asked if Mayors and others feel it a good thing to do to send a Canadian contingent to the Transvaal immediately. Thousands are depending on the affirmative. Do you approve of it. Kindly answer quickly at the Star's expense.

B. A. McNEIL, Editor Star.

The following reply was sent by His Worship:

The Star, Montreal.

The opinion prevails here that Canada should be represented in the field in the great war in South Africa. It is felt that the Dominion, being a partner in the Empire, should bear Imperial responsibilities as well as share in Imperial honors and protection. The Government should offer a Canadian contingent without delay.

J. W. JOHNSON, Mayor of Belleville.

A FATAL ACCIDENT.

A G.T.R. Brakeman Injured at Port Hope.

Dies Whilst on Route to His Home at Little York—The Unfortunate Man a Farmer Resident of This Locality.

Word was received in the City this morning stating that Mr. Albert Vanderhoeft, a brakeman on the G.T.R., had been injured at Port Hope last night, and died whilst on route home. It appears that the unfortunate man was on a freight train coming eastward and at Port Hope a same freight train was being derailed, during which Vanderhoeft was thrown off a car, falling across the rails. At that moment another freight train was proceeding westward, and the engine passed over the prostrate form, crushing the right arm and shoulder and also the right leg. He was picked up and made as comfortable as possible, and an effort made to convey him to his home at Little York, but he died as the train reached Whiting.

The deceased was a married man about 35 years of age, being a son of Mr. J. Vanderhoeft, of the G.T.R., and had been injured at Port Hope last night, and died whilst on route home. It appears that the unfortunate man was on a freight train coming eastward and at Port Hope a same freight train was being derailed, during which Vanderhoeft was thrown off a car, falling across the rails. He was picked up and made as comfortable as possible, and an effort made to convey him to his home at Little York, but he died as the train reached Whiting.

The deceased was a married man about 35 years of age, being a son of Mr. J. Vanderhoeft, of the G.T.R., and had been injured at Port Hope last night, and died whilst on route home. It appears that the unfortunate man was on a freight train coming eastward and at Port Hope a same freight train was being derailed, during which Vanderhoeft was thrown off a car, falling across the rails. At that moment another freight train was proceeding westward, and the engine passed over the prostrate form, crushing the right arm and shoulder and also the right leg. He was picked up and made as comfortable as possible, and an effort made to convey him to his home at Little York, but he died as the train reached Whiting.

Ask Your Friend

about King Quality Shoes. Ten to one he'll say "there are none better."

They are favorites with good dressers, because they are comfortable and yet stylish—stylish and yet economical.

Ask an expert their price, and he'll say "85"—he'd be wrong—for while they are worth it, our price is $3. That's one secret of their success. Ask to see King Quality Shoes."

EARLY MORNING WEDDING

Popular Young Belleville Lady Marries a New Brunswick.

A pretty home wedding occurred at 9 o'clock this morning at the residence of Mr. J. A. Falle, Frank street, when his daughter, Miss Elizabeth Falle, was united in marriage to Mr. Frederick W. Jeddard, of Eglon, N. B. The ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. C. W. Welch, of Holloway street church, was witnessed by only a few of the bride's relatives. The bride looked charming dressed in a traveling suit of blue cloth, trimmed with white lace and ribbons. The bridegroom wore a white coat and a handsome boutonniere of white roses and carnations. The bridesmaid was Miss Elsie A. Falle, a sister of the bride, who was prettily costumed. The groom was assisted by Mr. E. G. Kerr, of Theatrical, Algoma. The bride presented to the bride a handsome diamond ring and watch, and to the bridesmaid an oval ring. After the ceremony the happy party of a richly prepared wedding breakfast. At noon the young couple left for their future home at Eglon, N. B. The groom, who is a graduate of the Ontario Business College, is with his brother connected with a successful dry goods business at the above city. The bride had many friends who were tested by the numerous presents which she received, which were both valuable and handsome. The wedding cake was donated by Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Dickens, in whose place of business the bride was for some time an employee. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jeddard wish them every congratulations and wishing them every prosperity and happiness in wedded life.

No Room For Criticism.

A distinctly friendly audience gathered at the Columbia yesterday to welcome Lieut. Dan Godfrey and the British Guards. The assemblage was large and the night before proven criticism had been any room for criticism. Yesterday's concert certainly proved the merits of the British Guards both as ensemble players and as soloists. It also proved Lieut. Godfrey to be one of the best conductors alive. The band renders its selections as they might be given in a single marvelous musical impression capable of producing a hundred varieties of tone in one well blended and perfectly harmonious whole. The program was ranged from Rossini and Mendelssohn to Gounod and Wagner, from Beethoven and Liszt to Vol. Don. One would have to take a long railway journey to find such an organization as Lieut. Dan Godfrey's British Guards. adwts

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

That we have been told that everything a person wants, either for himself or wife, cannot be purchased in this City. That these instances are few, granted; but that it is nobody's business where or when a person spends their cash, especially as in some cases the cash came to this city with those who possess it.

That when the City Hall was built a very necessary part of the arrangement was omitted. There ought to have been a space room, in which some of the aldermen could leave the axes which they have to grind; then they wouldn't have to take them into the Council Chamber with them.

That the coming down the bay which a number of citizens enjoyed on Saturday afternoon, at that Prince of Enterprisers' yacht, the Skyhawk, was a source of delight to all who witnessed. Now that the fastest and most beautiful boat on the Bay of Quinte is all going to winter quarters we all say good-bye to the sight.

That the Montreal Star made an almost unparalleled mistake when it stated that King-ton's population had decreased by 60% in the past year. After showing that the figure had only been 1%, the Wing, which the Star had copied, it has always been published, states from all its manufacturing industries, showing that they never were more prosperous than they are today.

"DRAW MEER FAITH."

Inspiring Sermon by Rev. W. J. Gilliland.

Rector of Emmanuel R. E. Church, on the Sacrament of Holy Communion and its Teachings and Blessings to Mankind.

October 1st was Communion Sunday in the Episcopal Church, and as was fitting, Rev. W. J. Gilliland, Rector of Emmanuel R. E. Church, took as his subject the Lord's Supper and its proper teachings and influences on all communicants of the Christian Church, not of any particular sect, but in a catholic sense. The Rev. gentleman showed that the true object of the Lord's Supper was to keep alive in the breasts of all Christians the memory of the great and inestimable sacrifice made for us by the Saviour, and to help us to remember that only by walking in his footsteps and in our humble way, emulating this example, could we hope to share His Kingdom in the world to come. The text was taken from St. Paul's First Epistle to the Corinthians, fifth chapter, 7th and 8th verses: "Purge out, therefore, the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us. Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. The age of the apostles, said the preacher, has always been referred to as the Golden Age of Christianity. We are apt to think, as we dwell upon the signs and visions sent to the Christians of the early age, that they had more advantages than are vouchsafed to the Christians of to-day, but we must remember that the signs and blessings given to the disciples and believers of that day were meant to be records for the people of the world in ages then to come. One reason why Christianity in those days was so strong and sustaining in men was because then a man could not be a half-hearted believer and be counted a Christian at all. When a man became a church member in the days of St. Paul he had to place his life second to his religion. But in those days false prophets came in, even as they do to-day. Thus the Christians of Corinth were urged by St. Paul to purge out the old leaven, meaning that they were to purge out from their midst anyone who violated the laws of Christianity. No one was to be at peace with two things we ought to notice in commemorating the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. What the Passover was to the Jews the Lord's Supper is to the Christians of to-day. In the old times and tribulations have passed away, still the old-time blessings of the sacred feast of God's chosen people have been handed down to us. Among the Jews no one who was not perfect in the eyes of the law was allowed to keep the Passover. So it is to-day in the Christian Church. No one who is not perfect in the eyes of God and his Church has a right to go to the Communion Table. But the Passover was only a sign to help men to remember that they had secured for their souls the blessing of the Lord's Supper. The Lord's Supper taught men that Jesus Christ suffered for them that they might escape eternal bondage. The Jews themselves refused to accept this blessing. They refused it because they failed to grasp the fact that the Redeemer had died to save us—Jew and Gentile alike. When we look at the altar of the world to-day, when we note how little consideration is shown by man to his fellow man, we realize that we need a Passover to show the true way to live. On that dread night, when the angel of death went down the land of Egypt, only those were saved who had the intel and the door—those who had the blood of the Redeemer on their hearts do not show that they have been sprinkled with the blood of the Redeemer cannot hope for eternal life. We should see the Lord's Supper not in a literal sense, but in a spiritual sense, that our hearts may grow in grace. As the feast of the Passover was commanded to the Jews, so the feast of the Lord's Supper is commanded by Jesus to his followers. "Do this," he said, "in remembrance of me." The Lord's Supper shows us, as the Passover showed to the Jews, the fact that not by any agency of man can we be saved, but by a power higher than that of man. The Sacrament showed us the wisdom and unselfishness of the Divine Love—so free, so full that the very poorest of God's creatures can receive as full a portion of the blessing as the most highly gifted of mankind. It brings us closer to Christ as we recognize the fact that He died for us through His great love for us. We know that the Saviour never asks us to do anything but for our own good. But there are some things necessary for the proper celebration of the Lord's Supper. Hence to-day it is well that we should note the trend of the times. Mystery always had a charm for mankind, and to-day it was to be noted that the large religious bodies had taken the liberty of literalizing certain passages in the Bible, though they did not go so far as to say that the Saviour would tell you that the water you put out and the wine you drink is really and truly the flesh and blood of Christ. He had neither time nor inclination to do so, but to point out the fallacy of the teaching, but the simple fact was that as we took the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper we were brought nearer to Him and became more like Him. We must acknowledge ourselves to be what the Saviour has claimed we are, we must admit that we are no better and no worse than He said we are, and at last, when our lives are ended and our last Sacrament shall have been partaken of, we must be able to point to a life spent, to the best of our ability, in His service, to the blessed hope of a glorious resurrection.

THIRCE THE WINDOW FILLED.

Thrice Sir Lipton's Shamrock Showed Her Stern to Columbia.

On Saturday They Bailed Twenty-Eve Miles for the America's Cup—The Shamrock Hounded First by 9 Seconds, and Was 7 Seconds Ahead When the Race Was Called Off.

New York, Oct. 9.—Capt. Frank Lee, after a long and arduous voyage, with winds of sufficient strength for the vessels to cover the course in less than half the five hours it took the Shamrock to win hands down.

The Columbia and Shamrock tried for a third time on Saturday to sail the first of the races which are to decide whether the American flag shall remain in the possession of the New York Yacht club or be given over to the fleet of the British Royal Yacht Club of Belfast, and again failed to complete the course.

The start was off the wind and Columbia was sent away 17 seconds ahead of the Shamrock. The latter's wind neither seemed to have any advantage in the wind, but the challenger, contrary to the general expectation, outran the American yacht and rounded the outer mark 9 seconds in the lead.

The two yachts were flattened for a second time, the Shamrock soon demonstrated her superiority in windward work, for she pulled out her gun and rounded the outer mark 9 seconds in the lead.

But the greater heat of the wind would have put the cup in jeopardy. The Shamrock's gun was pointed at the Columbia's stern, and the latter's gun was pointed at the Shamrock's bow.

Some idea of the close sailing of the two yachts can be gathered from the fact that the Shamrock was 12 knots behind the Columbia when the latter was 12 knots ahead.

A TRAGIC LOVE TALE.

THE PATHETIC STORY OF MICHAEL ANGELO'S WIDOW.

Only When Death Came to the Woman Did He Admit That He Had Loved Her—The Widow of Michael Angelo's Story.

However sorrowful may have been the love of poets, there is noadder love story than that of Michael Angelo, who died of grief, and of whom his wife, who had been his wife for 10 years, had been his wife for 10 years.

Love came to him late, and that late in life, for he was 61 years old when he married, and she was 21.

She had a beautiful face, and a beautiful figure, and she was a beautiful woman, and she was a beautiful woman.

After the death of Michael Angelo, she was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow.

She was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow.

She was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow.

She was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow.

She was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow.

She was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow.

She was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow.

She was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow.

She was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow.

She was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow.

She was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow.

She was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow.

She was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow.

She was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow.

She was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow.

She was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow, and she was a widow.

Dan Godfrey in Cleveland—

16 Bands Attended.

When Lieut. Dan Godfrey's Band appeared recently in Cleveland, Gray's Army, the largest audience in the city, was packed to the doors by one of the most enthusiastic audiences ever assembled in that city. The bands of Ohio were well represented. It is in the city of uniform, among which were the Akron Band, the Palestine Band, the Great Eastern Band, the Lettner Garrison's Band, the Old Fellow's Band, the Scott's Guards and others, also the Ladies' Orchestra turned out in full force, all gowned in white.

A pleasing incident occurred during the concert when Lieut. Godfrey was presented with a beautiful ivory gold tipped Band of elegant workmanship and valued at $200. The Lieutenant made a graceful and happy speech of thanks.

The engagement of the Band here at the Carman Opera House on Monday next promises to be the event of the season, and the excursion will be run into the City on the railway and steamboat lines. A matinee will be given in the afternoon especially for the children and will be a most attractive and happy affair. Matinee prices will be, Children 10c, Adults 50c and 50c. Evening prices, 25c, 50c, and 75c. Seats are now on sale at Riggs' Music Store.

A PITIFUL CRIPPLE

From Rheumatism—Suffered by Doctor T.H. He Didn't Know Himself—South American Rheumatic Cure Performs a Wonderful Cure.

D. Deaneville, Peterboro, writes: "For months I was unable to work, had rheumatism in every part of my body. I was blistered by doctors at ten different times. My hands were drawn out of shape. My fingers were distorted and my wrists and forearms were swollen to their natural size. My legs were swollen to a monstrous size. I was unable to walk. I took two bottles. The first bottle did me a great deal of good. I was able to go to work. Now I am as healthy and strong as ever."

Taylor-Campbell Nuptials.

At the parsonage of Bridge at Church last evening Rev. C. E. McIntyre united in marriage Mr. Thos. Campbell, of Kingston, and Miss Eliza Taylor, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Taylor, of this City. The bride was assisted by her sister, Missie, and Mr. Levi Taylor, jr., was groomsmen. After the wedding supper at Kingston, where they will reside.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too by a lady. This discovery is "Discovered" the standard for all the best tests, but vital organs were examined and death seemed imminent. For three months she was confined to her bed, unable to move. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night, and with two bottles, she has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. This was written by W. C. Hammond & Co., of Albany, N.Y. Trial bottles free. Dr. J. S. McKenney's New Discovery for Consumption, 10c. Large bottle guaranteed.

AMELIABURG FAIR

A GRAND SUCCESS.

A Large Attendance and Beautiful Weather.

The Show a Decided Improvement Over Former Years—A Good Wholesome Exhibition in Every Respect.

The Ameliaburg Fair, which was held at Robin's farm on Saturday last, was first-class in every respect, being under the successful management of Mr. D. M. Howell, President. No fakes were allowed on the grounds, and a good wholesome exhibition was the result.

The entries were very large—over 2,400 in number, and without exception every department made a highly creditable showing.

The horse show was a leading feature. The competition was keen, and in most instances the judges had hard work to decide as to the winners.

In the light and carriage class the horses were fine lot considering the scarcity of good horses now available.

In the roadster team class four fine pairs were shown. Addition Weese, H. Ashley, H. Ketchum and F. Redner. The prizes were won in order named above.

The single roadster class had four competitors. The first was a dead heat; the second was a dead heat; the third was a dead heat; the fourth was a dead heat.

The judges were A. D. Bagley, Austin Sprague and W. E. Harris, who gave splendid satisfaction.

Gen. Purpose and Drought Horses—In this class some fine animals were brought out, the exhibit being not large but very good. The heavy horse is evidently taking a prominent place with the Prince Edward farmers, becoming very popular. The judges were W. E. Baker, J. Hendricks and D. H. Leavess.

The dairy cattle show was well represented in Ayrshires and Jerseys. The principal exhibitors were N. Chisholm, Messrs. McDonald, J. W. Sprague, the whole very creditable.

For the sheep they had just finished a splendid building, neatly painted, showing good taste, and it was a move in right direction. They will have another building erected in the accommodation of pigs in another year.

The poultry department was not so well filled as usual, but the quality was splendid, not without some of the most critical period of the year for the fowls, the molting season.

The Brahmas, Cochins, Lephors and Darks were particularly good. For some reason the Band Hawks were not out in their usual numbers. The judges were: Geo. W. Van Isael and W. C. Huff.

New to the fair, the vegetables, which were simply grand, could not be beaten, the potatoes being something immense.

Grain and stock on the whole were extra.

Upstairs the Ladies' Department was well represented, the finest of the kind ever placed in the hall, so many new things and up-to-date work was never seen before. One thing the directors should do before the next show, that is, to revise the list, cutting off a number of old out-of-date things, supplementing them with new entries, which would meet the approval of the whole.

The fine art, painting, etc., was certainly elegant, showing a marked improvement over any former event.

The flowers made a very pleasing show, there being many fine and odd flowering varieties, which gave the judges some time to decide.

The great receipts were $407.

Everything passed off without any hitch.

A large number from this City were present.

A Gifted Artist.

One of the rarest and most admirable attributes in singing is the power of grasping the atmosphere of a song. It is always in a singer the sign of superior talent. Few singers have this gift in a higher degree than Mr. Doyle's own soprano, Mrs. James Grant. It is the effluence of her fine culture, her thoroughly artistic temperament and intellectuality. Recognizing this fact Mr. Doyle has selected from among his compositions for Mrs. Grant, who sings at his Manuscript Concert on Thursday evening, those songs which demand the most intelligent and artistic treatment. It is gratifying to know that Mrs. Grant's extraordinary talents as a singer and teacher are becoming recognized in the Canadian centres of art and culture. No doubt this season she will be heard in Montreal, Toronto and other large cities. Recently in Toronto she astonished the critics and teachers by her fine work, and already Mr. Suckling, of Massey Music Hall, the well-known impresario, has been holding out inducements to her to sing in Toronto. It is to be sincerely hoped that Mrs. Grant will remain in Belleville, however, for she has been the life and soul of vocal music since she came here and besides has been the strongest musical educational factor Belleville has ever had. She has also been a very great social favorite and a source of pride in the fact that this City possessed in her one of Canada's very best teachers and singers.

—Blaine's advice to the American people was to export manufactured goods rather than raw material, and by following that advice, the United States has won a place in the front rank of manufacturing nations and bids fair to outdistance all her rivals. Canada should take a note of this and shape her policy accordingly. We have an advantage which even the United States did not possess, in that we have a virtual monopoly in certain lines of raw material. The greatest nickel deposits in the world are ours, and the manufacturers from nickel are coming into such common use, that in these alone, we have an extensive field for the employment of our energy. The same is true of our extensive forests of pulp wood, and before many more years it will also be true of our forests of pine. We have seen what the following of Blaine's advice has done for the United States, and we can make history repeat itself if we go to work now. The policy that will preserve Canada for the Canadians is the policy that will make you rich.—Eron.

ANOTHER "ORPHAN"

Relates the grievances of Coleman Ward and Takes Exception to Certain Statements by Ald. Hanley.

To the Editor of The INTELLIGENCER.

Sir:—In last week's paper I noticed Alderman Hanley's letter, also a mention of his illness, and I at once concluded that Alderman Hanley had not taken the "Orphan's" advice and visited this vicinity and viewed our elaborate "path," which has been seen to all eyes. I am sorry to hear that he has been here, but should never have written in that strain, for in some places the stone is scarcely two inches thick, with only about an inch of lime covering, and more than that, in many places the path is lower than the portion outside, and that the water lies on the path instead of flowing off. We people up here have not quite so much faith in the City Council as to walk on the water, but perhaps Alderman Hanley has. I wonder how he would like to try it, and I also wonder how it is that he uses his influence to force upon us, all who are not represented in Council, all his schemes for economy. The old board walk taken from us was a hundred per cent. better than the path we now have. In this improvement to our city I regard Alderman Hanley's statement in reference to doing to value thousands of dollars of work with eight thousand, judging from the work done it seems to me as though he would require twelve thousand to do eight thousand dollars' worth of work. Alderman Hanley also claims to regret that more work cannot be done on the most side of the river, but I find he has not failed to have a certain amount done in the vicinity of his own home. I wonder how that came about?

We people in this part of the City have just as much pride and ambition as our more favored friends on Queen street, but rather than receive in our improvement the City Fathers, we receive little but discouragement, and I assure you it did not at all lightly weigh on our minds. The Alderman and his associates, who are citizens dubbed our path the "Indian Trail." (We fancy this owing to the narrowness and combined style of the path.) Alderman Hanley and his associates, who are citizens dubbed our path the "Indian Trail." (We fancy this owing to the narrowness and combined style of the path.)

We have always believed and have heard much of the benefits that Belleville receives from Albert College, but we think that Albert receives very little support from the City Fathers, else they would consider the school of learning and a place of separating the streets in this part of the City, where so many of our citizens and visitors are constantly passing to and fro.

Are we to understand from the closing remarks of the Alderman's letter that he is using for votes at the coming election?

In reply, I must say that although I have sat at the Council board for many years, I was certainly not a constant.

"TRYING IT ON THE DOG."

How Dangerous Drugs are Put to the Physiological Test.

"You've heard the theoretical expression, 'trying it on a dog,' and I feel that it is a great pity that a local representative of a great manufacturing drugstore, 'It means an experimental performance of a new play in some small city. It the dog, otherwise the usual city, shows no great symptoms of distress, they venture the thing in New York. Well, in our line of business we frequently 'try it on a dog' also on a frog, a rat, a rooster, a guinea pig, and other animals to test the strength of our trials are literal, not figurative. We make them to ascertain the strength of certain drugs, and for some time we have been doing this in a scientific manner, and our duty chemical analysis. In such cases we resort to what is called a physiological test.

"Suppose, for instance, we want to find out the strength of a sample of digitalis, which, if in good condition, has a stimulating effect on the heart. We select a frog, and we place it in a bath of the stomach of a small frog, which is then placed in a delicate machine called a sphygmograph that records its heartbeats on a strip of paper. The digitalis is then perfectly dead and inert, and it may be strong and active—no chemical test tells the difference, the sphygmograph tells at the truth with infallible certainty, and the sample is graded accordingly. The frog and the sample are then placed in a bath of digitalis, and after two hours, and they are rather lively to get. Some time ago we sent the house a consignment from New Orleans, but they proved to be too large. Why do we use such small ones? Because it takes less of the drug to affect them. It's merely a matter of economy.

Some of the other tests are still more curious," continued the drug man, "and some queerer than that of getting to ascertain its active properties a small quantity of digitalis is injected into a full grown rooster. If the drug is up to standard strength, the comb of the fowl soon begins to turn black, and eventually becomes almost black. The power of the digitalis is then on the trial is indicated by the degree of the discoloration. This test is the only reliable one known, and it is extremely valuable, because ergot has a strong tendency to occasionally failing all its medicinal properties without when it is in the process of change in general appearance. Hands in the power of the particular animal, which has figured so extensively in the history of the drug, is a test of the drug. When the drug is all right, the frog begins to get dry, and the rooster's comb and eventually black over and over again.

The necessity of testing biological grows out of a very singular fact. As most people know, it is made from the blossoms of Indian hemp, but it is only the unfertilized female flower that has any narcotic properties. The male flowers are absolutely valueless, but all three look alike to the naked eye. So does the female flower prepared for medicinal use, and the other drugs mentioned, it is difficult to analyze. These tests will give a fair idea of the modern method of getting at facts about medicine. They are only a few out of many.

Altogether I suppose that upward of a dozen different methods are used, each as acted because of its sensitiveness to some special preparation."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

"BON VOYAGE," FRANK.

Nuptials of Mr. Frank Y. Brenton and Miss Lina G. Jenkins.

A wedding of special interest to many, in which a prominent young man of this city was the bridegroom, and a young woman of the same city was the bride. It occurred at the residence of Mrs. E. Jenkins, No. 6 Myrtle Hill, when her daughter, Miss Lina G. Jenkins, was united in marriage to Mr. Frank Y. Brenton, of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. O. Hallock, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church. The bride was very pretty. She was dressed in a white gown, and she was accompanied by her mother and father. The groom was dressed in a dark suit, and he was accompanied by his best man. The ceremony was a simple one, and it was attended by a large number of guests.

HEROIC DUTCH BOYS.

Why France's Conquest of Antwerp Is Ignored by French Writers.

"Obtained and brave as a Dutchman" was a familiar term in France 75 years ago, when a handful of Dutchmen, armed and fearless by Hollanders gave one more proof of what Dutch courage really means.

It was in September, 1830, that Belgium, which for 10 years had been under the rule of a Dutch king, rose in revolt and deposed the aid of the other European powers in establishing her independence, and a setting up of a king of her own.

As may well be imagined, the Dutch king, who had been a very good man, and a very excellent man, was organized and the French government sent a large force to suppress the revolt. MILLIONS OF DICE

They Are Made of Various Materials and Sold in Large Numbers.

The dice used in the United States are all imported from France, though it may be that some of the dice are made in this country. They are made in a manufacturing district not far from Paris, which are produced in various quantities, and are also things partly of bone, as for instance, for instance, bone dice are made in 11 sizes, from 6 to 10 inclusive, and in each of these sizes they are made both square and round, and are of all other kinds of dice. In all kinds of dice there are sold of the square cornered variety, 10 times, perhaps 20 times as many as of those made with rounded corners. The square cornered dice are often used in playing backgammon; they were a board less than square cornered dice and were used in the past.

Celluloid dice, which are made in this country, are of both opaque and transparent material. The transparent dice are made in satin color, and are in various sizes, and are used in the same way as the square cornered dice. The opaque dice are made in various sizes, and are used in the same way as the square cornered dice.

There are made in celluloid two styles of dice, one of which is shaped like a cube, and the other like a cylinder. The cube dice are made in various sizes, and are used in the same way as the square cornered dice. The cylinder dice are made in various sizes, and are used in the same way as the square cornered dice.

A considerable number of dice of one kind and another are sold for use in the household. All cabinets made to hold cards and counters and so on have a compartment for dice, which are part of the equipment, and many dice for such use are sold separately.

British Armored Train Blown Up by the Boers.

Train was Loaded with Refugees, Including Women and Children—Outrage has Aroused Violent Indignation—Fifteen Soldiers Killed.

Cape Town, October 13.—A British armored train from Mafeking was blown up and destroyed by the Boers at Vryburg last evening.
The loss of life is feared to be heavy,
as the train had aboard the last of the refugees fleeing from the Transvaal into Cape Town.

They numbered 200, including women and children, besides the armed guard.
The news of the outrage has aroused the population here to the pitch of violence.

A despatch received here says that fifteen soldiers were killed in the destruction of the armored train.

BELLEVILLE VOLUNTEERS.

Those from the City who have volunteered their services in case a contingent

Pioneer-Sergeant Patterson.

formed our representative that a number of others will enlist if their services are required.

The Best Dressed Men

Get their clothing from Quick & Robert-

the very same materials tailors use, and are finely cut, made and finished. If they don't quite fit us make them fit. No man he had just come from the highest price tailor. We are sole agents in Belleville for the W. Q. Johnston Co. Clothing.

When Doctors Differ

aches, sleeplessness and dizziness, especially when the best physicians, who in many cases are the cause of the trouble, which can only be removed by properly fitted glasses. This is what we guarantee to do or refund the money in every case. We only prescribe glasses when necessary. No charge for examination.—ALEX. RAY, Graduate Optician.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

That the weather is delightful.

That the renege and fanatic Tarte is taking up altogether much more room.

That the yacht race talk is getting monotonous.
Better knock off the time limit and let 'em finish it.

That if all the kickers in Belleville join the football club to-night they'll have a big membership.

That the south side of Bridge st., from the Post Office to Front st., stands badly in need of an asphalt pavement.

That escaping gas on Dunbar st., between Catherine and Holloway st., is very disagreeable to residents of that locality.

That the Shamrock don't win the cup. She has helped to make a record, anyhow. Six fifteen in succession so far.

That the report of the Columbia having struck a rock is but partially true. She has struck a Sham-Rock which she cannot get away from.

That the movement on foot for providing better athletic facilities at Albert College is wise and timely. Muscular Christianity is what the world needs to-day.

That a few hundred of the Northwest Mounted Police, if they could be spared, would be the best contingent Canada could send to the Transvaal. They'd be able to play the game in good style.

That civility will accomplish much in this world. Ladies cheerfully removed their hats in the opera house last night when asked to do so, who would have presented an ill-tempered front. The savvier the mode gets there nearly every time.

That the beautiful song "Just One Girl," has been the cause of a copyright suit in Toronto. Our readers will be pleased to know that there is no likelihood of a law suit over the authorship of the charming ballad, "Clancy's Girl."

That a contemporary comes pretty near the truth
when it prints the following: "What folly it is to make an article of a boy or girl who would be such a triumphant hit as a fence white-washer or a floor-scrubber. I would a good deal rather be a success at spreading the picturesque white-wash upon the backyard fence than to be the author of some of the latest, elegant art, that one sees on the walls of fond but mistaken parents. In conclusion, then, of the whole matter is work. Hard work, intelligently applied, is all the royal road to success there is that is worth while considering."

That it is sometimes easier to make statements than to prove them. Referring to the letter from ex-Mr. Wainwright, which appeared in our column on Wednesday evening, Mr. George Wallbridge says that he had no plan for building a park nor does he know of any in existence before Mayor Johnson initiated the work. As he had been desired to see a park, but as a Harbor Commissioner he refused to spend the harbor money for that purpose.
He says if the citizens have a park they are indebted to the exertions of the present Mayor for it. Honor to whom honor is due.

ALD. HANLEY'S

SHARP RETORT.

Points Out That Responsibility Does Not Rest With Individuals.

To the Editor of THE INTELLIGENCER.

Sir,—It is not easy for a man confined to his room through illness to answer all the complaints coming from the street ending in "Orphan," and I would not take up this matter again but for the seeming impossibility of impressing upon these people the fact that according to resolution passed by the City Council, new plank walks are a thing of the past. Where they can be repaired to advantage the Street
Surveyor has authority to make the necessary repairs. But when the stringers are rotten these walks have to be removed and replaced by one of two kinds, that is, stone and screenings such as the Street Surveyor has put down on Orin st., or the genuine granolithic walk. The residents of Grier
st. had the option of a granolithic walk for the sake of it, but no such petition was ever presented to the City Council, and so the Street Surveyor did the only thing he had any authority by resolution of Council to do. Probably the work could have been done better.

The new "Orphan" who appeared in yesterday's INTELLIGENCER seems to have the most profound sympathy for Albert College, but it is somewhat remarkable how sharply he draws the line at the flap of his trousers pocket. If the good of Albert College had worried him very much he would have come forward like a man with a petition for a granolithic walk, but the sidewalk trousers pocket stood in the way.

He tells us also that he was a member of the City Council for many years, but, alas, seems to have dropped out, entirely forgotten. Evidently did not get out any too soon, for if he is a member of the progress of Coleman Ward or any other part of the City, some one would have told of it, which does not seem to be the case.

—THOMAS HANLEY.

which struck him sideways, inflicting some

AN UNIQUE ENTERTAINMENT

Mr. J. Nevin Doyle's Manuscript Concert Last Night.

Large and Fashionable Audience Testifies to the Popularity of Belleville's Clever Composer.

On the whole, Mr. Joseph Nevin Doyle's
Manuscript Concert, which held the boards at the Opera House last night, may safely be pronounced a success. To be sure, there were some disappointments, but the bright are not to be laid at the door of the young gentleman whose compositions were last evening sung for the first time in public. Two ladies and one gentleman, whose names were on the programme, did not put in an appearance. One of the ladies,
Miss Katherine Ward, was in the audience,
but was unable to sing. The other two artists,
for private reasons, had left the City.
Miss Ward's numbers were taken by Mr.
Doyle himself, Miss Hungerford's numbers are still unused, and Mr. Brenton's place on the programme was acceptably filled by Mr. Brinnett.

An air of expectancy hung over the audience as they awaited the rising of the curtain, for last night's concert was an unique affair. Not only were the songs to be interpreted by ladies and gentlemen with whom the people of the audience associated in everyday life, but the songs themselves were virgin compositions and it was a Belleville boy, born and bred, who offered to them the fruits of his genius. It would be invidious and not by any means a graceful act to attempt to paint the lady (one of Mr. Doyle's ladies need painting), nor, to damn with faint praise, but fulsome, indiscriminate commendation is neither honest nor honorable.

For the most part, in fact, in every case,
Mr. Doyle's settings were tuneful and melodious, in some he showed flashes of genius, in some he descended to—but never below—mediocrity. Some of the accompaniments were dainty and inspiring, all of them were fitting to the theme they accompanied. As an accompanist, and instance, in the chorus of "Paddy the Piper," the harmony seemed just a trifle questionable. All of Mr. Doyle's own songs, "The Duke of Lough," "Love's Day" and "Savilla Nights" were very pleasing. The first, a sacred song, was well suited to his voice, and was well received. As an accompanist, and in-

A NEW VERSION

(With apologies to H.K.)

Mr. J. T. Tarte is opposed to Canada being the Mother Country in South Africa, and he has his way no assistance will be given. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Minister of the Interior, has been asked to make the humiliating admission to the Government that it is not able to assist a Canadian contingent to enter the South African Republic in South Africa. — Press despatch, Friday's paper.

A nation spoke to a nation—
"Draw now, we faint would show."
The whole world was at one
To stand at the woman's bow.
You were first in the procession,
Don't let it when it comes to bow.
But alas and woe! it never came
From Our Lady of the Snows!

From all over the fair Dominion
Loud murmurs filled the air—
"Come, say the word, Sir Wilfrid,
We faint would show."
But alas and woe! it never came
From Our Lady of the Snows!

"We thought you'd be eager to help them,
For they've come to us, one and all;
We thought you'd 'shoulder your musket'
Again
And obey the Old Land's call!"

But the only answer was a sunny smile
That lit the murmurs rose.
For a trifle's hand was at the helm
Of Our Lady of the Snows.

THE CANADIAN CONTINGENT.
That great dissatisfaction exists in regard to the Government's arrangements with respect to the Transvaal Contingent is no news. It was not at first the general opinion that Canada should furnish a contingent to take their share in fighting the Boers. Many people thought the Transvaal Contingent among them, that the fighting would be done by the regulars and they were quite satisfied to let it, but after they became known that the Imperial Government desired the presence of a contingent to show that the Empire was a unit in commencing the South African policy, the answer should have been straightforward and ready and there should have been no haltingly spirit among them.

No man can tell what complications may set in before this war is over, and if foreign nations saw that the colonies were at one with the Mother Country in this matter they would be more apt to hesitate before interfering.

The half-hearted spirit of compliance on the part of the Government has shown is nothing short of humiliating to all loyal people. The response should have been spontaneous and hearty.

To be sure, Hon. Mr. Tarte has never been profuse in his professions of loyalty, but he has taken the oath as a Minister of the Crown, and this all speak loud to him. In his case, actions speak louder than words.

But with Sir Wilfrid Laurier the case is different. He has been the honored guest of the British nation, and was given the place of honor in the Jubilee procession. Surely one is justified in wondering at the attitude of the man who indulged in all the flattery platitudes on that occasion and it will cause a feeling of shame in the hearts of every patriotic British subject to think that a small colony like New South Wales, which has never had occasion to call for Imperial aid in meeting its foes, could send a contingent and vote £30,000 for their expenses, when this fair Dominion, which has been called the "brightest jewel in the British Crown," grudgingly sends her brave boys and compels the Mother Country to pay them, and sends them to fight for the British Empire, while the Canadians will be lost of sight. It is not a pleasant subject for Canadians to dwell upon.

His Son-in-Law.
A famous novelist arrived one day at a little country place and from the moment he crossed the threshold of the quiet inn he was surrounded by a crowd of people. He was passionately addicted to card playing and he had been invited to play for a dinner on his arrival at the inn. He was not a little surprised when he found that the whole party was composed of his own people.

Next day there was a cabage in the garden and he was the first to go to the third day the whole cabage department by order was conducted on the same principle.

After a week's stop the novelist had picked of it and announced his intention of departing. He was about to start when he was stopped by a man who was waiting on his host to present him to the guests. He found him in the garden—the man called.

"Good afternoon," he began hesitantly, "may I not hope that, after having been the guest of so capable an entertainer, I may be permitted to depart without a souvenir of the visit?"

The country landlord looked at him with surprise, and then, inspired with an idea, called aloud:

"John!—a farinland—bring one of your finest cabages for this gentleman."

"Spurn! Moments."

Some time ago a man having $200 in cash government notes put the roll of paper into the pocket of his nightgown and went to bed. He was not a little surprised when he found that the whole party was composed of his own people.

"Spurn! Moments."

Life Money Made Good.
Some time ago a man having $200 in cash government notes put the roll of paper into the pocket of his nightgown and went to bed. He was not a little surprised when he found that the whole party was composed of his own people.

Next day there was a cabage in the garden and he was the first to go to the third day the whole cabage department by order was conducted on the same principle.

After a week's stop the novelist had picked of it and announced his intention of departing. He was about to start when he was stopped by a man who was waiting on his host to present him to the guests. He found him in the garden—the man called.

Hot Fighting
At Mafeking.Boers Have Been Repulsed With Heavy Losses.

Refugees Bring News of the Many Killed and Wounded—Col. Baden-Powell Seems to be Fighting Hard—300 Boers and 18 British Reported to Have Been Killed.

Transvaal refugees who arrived at Lorenzo Marques reported that Boers were repulsed at Mafeking, sustaining heavy losses.
Armoured train near Kimberley engaged Boers, killing five and wounding seven. No British losses.
Heavy fighting Saturday north of Mafeking. Armoured repair train killed some Boers. Nine British wounded. Train loaded with dynamite blown up.

Fighting continues at Mafeking. After the second engagement British retired in direction of town, but resumed attack shortly afterwards, two Boers killed and three wounded. Boers afterwards got heavy artillery from General Cronje.

A special from Capetown says 300 Boers and 18 British have been killed at Mafeking.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

That there must be a lull on the green belt.
That the Magistrate will be heartily commended for his efforts to stop rowdiness on the streets.
That many of our citizens would like to have the power to nominate a few men to go to the Transvaal contingent.

That the British navy is out of the present war, but then, you see, they probably keep a few more nations out of it, too.
That before our boys leave the Mayor would do a graceful thing if he called a public meeting to give 'em a send off.

That, though Sir Thomas seems doomed to lose three straight races, he is evidently a true sportsman and is going to "die game."
That disappointment was general at the Shamrock's poor showing yesterday. Ah, well, the old cup is not much to look at anyway. The grapes are sour.

That the farmers have good reason for the smiling faces they wear. Good weather, good roads, good crops and good prices, like new wine, should gladden the hearts of all men.
That everybody will be glad to hear of the decision of the War Office to allow the Canadian contingent to serve together as a regiment instead of being split up into squadrons.

That Col. Baden-Powell and his noble six hundred are a source of anxiety just now. A little encouraging news from Mafeking would be a pleasant thing for Thanksgiving day.
That things are growing warm for Tartie. He was burned in effigy in several places last night. It will test the ingenuity of British editors to prove that the renegade is a patriot in this case.

That Premier Hardy's resignation gives Ontario people something else to celebrate next Thursday. The "wicked partner" could read the signs of the times and get under cover while his chance was good.
That it was hardly necessary for the Irishmen of New Brunswick to condemn the action of their fellow-countrymen who publicly sympathized with the Boers. All Irishmen are not traitors and windbags by any means.

That people who go to musical entertainments should refrain from talking in a loud voice while solos are being played. They, no doubt, desire to hear the sound of their own voices, but they are a nuisance to the ladies and gentlemen who pay their good money to hear the artists.
That Mr. Geo. E. Tuckett is made of the right sort of stuff. This will be quite apparent to anybody who reads the despatch from Hamilton in another column. People who stay at home and smoke the pipe of peace should have a warm spot in their hearts for the makers of the old T. & B.

That Rev. Father Connolly, of St. Michael's, was surprised when he saw in the papers that he had volunteered for service in Africa. The Rev. gentleman says he has not volunteered but if he thought he could do any good he wouldn't hesitate long before doing so. Those who know him best will quite believe that.
That many people wonder at the forbearance of Great Britain in dealing with people who talk and write treason within her borders. It is the fact that no notice is taken of them which makes them so rabid. John Bull is in the position of the man who had a scolding. "How do you stand it, John?" asked a chucker. "Why, I stand it, fellow, with a chuckle," it pleased her, and it don't hurt me."

A Thousand Tongues
Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Sturges, of 1123 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Cough Cure for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Cough Cure—"It soon relieved the pain in my chest, and I am now sleeping soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like shouting to praise throughout the land the name of the great healer, Dr. King's New Cough Cure, and I tell you, it is the best medicine I have ever used. I feel like shouting to praise throughout the land the name of the great healer, Dr. King's New Cough Cure, and I tell you, it is the best medicine I have ever used."

The 15th Batt. Rifle Matches
The annual Rifle Matches will take place Thanksgiving morning at the ranges, commencing at 8:30 a. m. The various ranges will be 250, 400, 500, 600, 800 and 900 yards. Valuable prizes will be competed for.

THE WAR SUMMARY.

Full war news on inside pages.
The Boer transport service is said to be defective, and it is expected that this will postpone the expected attack on Glen-ville.
General White about 10,000 men in the line.

It is said that the Boers have been repulsed at Mafeking, sustaining heavy losses.
An armored train, while reconnoitering near Spytfontein, killed five Boers and wounded seven. No British casualties.
Fighting still going on at Mafeking at last accounts.

Special from Capetown says 300 Boers and 18 British have been killed at Mafeking.
A Patriotic Tobacco Man.

Hamilton, October 16.—In connection with the proposal to send a Canadian contingent to South Africa the George E. Tuckett & Son Company, Limited, has generously offered to give any of its employees who join the volunteers for the African campaign fifty cents a day while they are away, and will hold their places open for them when they return. Not only this, but the big tobacco manufacturers will pay the premiums on insurance on the lives of the employees who go. Two or three employees have signified their intention to volunteer for the service.

PREMIER HARDY HAS RESIGNED.

Hon. Geo. W. Ross Will Take His Place as Premier.

Work of Cabinet Reconstruction Will Begin at Once—Hardy Will Go to the Bench.

Toronto, October 17.—It was definitely stated in inside Liberal circles last night that the expected changes in the Hardy Government had already been made, and that an announcement might be expected within the next day or two. Hon. A. F. Hardy, Premier of Ontario, has already resigned, and will take a position on the bench, either as Chief Justice of the Court of Appeal, in succession to Sir George Burton, or in some other position suitable to him. The Cabinet will be at once reorganized, with Hon. G. W. Ross as Premier. The position of Attorney-General is offered to Hon. J. M. Gibson, and Hon. Richard Harcourt is put down for the portfolio of Education.

Hon. Wm. Hardy, whose health has for a considerable time been a severe handicap to him in controlling the Department of Public Works, will retire from Mr. O. K. Fraser and Mr. J. R. Stratton will enter the Cabinet, the former as Commissioner of Public Works and the latter probably as Treasurer.

Dates for the bye-elections in the vacant provincial ridings will be announced at once, and it is understood that the election of West Elgin will take place on Saturday, Nov. 25.

A BAD YOUTH.

Charles Folly is Again in Trouble.
Charles Folly, a young man whose reputation is not of the very best, was this morning arrested by Officer Hayes, and the charge against him is larceny. It is alleged that he, in company with some other boys, stole some articles out of a box car, which was left standing on the siding on Pinnacle street. As to what was taken and quantity could not be learned as the police are unable at present to tell. The boy will be taken to-morrow before the P. M., and in the meantime an effort is being made to recover the goods and also to find out who the other boys are. Folly has nothing to say about the matter.

Disorderly Young Men.

Two young men, named Gilbert Gardner and Thos. Bowler, were this morning charged before the Magistrate with disorderly conduct on Front street on Saturday night last. From the evidence given it was proven that their conduct was very bad. The Magistrate gave them a severe lecture and said his intention of punishing severely such conduct upon the public streets is future. He fined Gardner $3 and costs and Bowler $2 and costs. Some other boys who it is supposed were the frascos, will be summoned and dealt with accordingly.

Mafeking Bombarded.

A New and Serious Element in the Situation.

The Warlike Basutos Have Risen Against the Orange Free State—The Report of Serious Boer Losses at Mafeking is Believed.

Pretoria, Oct. 18.—Gen. Cronje, after warning the women and children to leave Mafeking, opened fire upon the town with cannon on Monday afternoon. No response was made. London, Oct. 18.—Up to noon to-day there was no confirmation of reports of serious Boer losses at Mafeking, but stories are arriving from various points so persistently and circumstantially that it appears probable the burghers have met with a reverse.

NOT ENTIRELY SATISFACTORY.

Some Points Connected With the Canadian Contingent Which Don't Please the Public. A visit to Col. Ponton to-day elicited the fact that some slight dissatisfaction prevails among local military men regarding the Government's arrangements about the Transvaal contingent. Every man in Belleville who volunteers has to go to Kingston, at his own expense, for medical examination. It is probable, the Colonel informs us, that any members of the XV. who go and happen to fail to pass will have their expenses defrayed by the Battalion. If the candidates are accepted they will be collected at once, and will, of course pay the necessary expenses themselves. Col. Ponton wrote and asked that the Belleville volunteers might be examined by Dr. Farley, Surgeon-Major of the 49th, but received in return the following circular:

BRIGADE OFFICE, KINGSTON. Men wishing to enroll must come here for acceptance and medical inspection at their own risk and expense. Send none but first-class men. (1). Good shots. (2). In the Militia, or served their time. (3). Good character and sobriety. (4). Physique as per Militia Order No. 211. A good deal of dissatisfaction is expressed at the age limit set, viz., from 22 to 40. Many likely young men are barred by this. So far as officers are concerned the XV. has not much chance. Only four officers are to be taken from the district extending from Bowmanville to Cornwall, including the Ottawa Brigade.

Col. Ponton wired this morning asking the name of the officer appointed to command the company recruited from this district, so that the XV. could place themselves in communication with him, but up to a late hour had received no answer.

Patriotic Englishmen. At the regular monthly meeting of Oxford Lodge, held last night it was decided that the Lodge would, while they are absent, pay the dues of any of its members who volunteer for service in South Africa, and that, should wounds or sickness overtake them, the benefits they were entitled to should be paid to their families.

No York and Return. On Tuesday, October 17, special excursion will be run to New York and return via Grand Trunk R.R. and New York Central, from Belleville, at rate of $9.15 for round trip. Tickets good for 10 days stay in the Metropolis. Call at U. E. Thompson's Ticket Office for valuable information regarding the excursion.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING. That it was too bad that those 18 British who were killed at Mafeking. That among the Maxims which the Boers possess they forgot to include the golden rule. That if Hon. Mr. Tarte would like to find out what some of the people of Canada think of him he ought to go on a stumping tour through Ontario.

That Colonel Sir Wilfrid Laurier should have the following motto emblazoned on his coat of arms: "Invincible in peace; invincible in war." That our urban Assayer, Mr. Wells, is the right man in the right place at the Provincial Assay Office, which is rapidly becoming widely known.

That the Thanksgiving turkey will be absent at many festive boards to-morrow. Nobody but a bloated capitalist can afford to keep a turkey at home at such a season. That the residents of Coleman Ward can congratulate themselves on one thing—they won't be annoyed by bicyclists riding on the sidewalks which have been put down there lately.

HON. G. W. ROSS NOW PREMIER.

Has Already Assumed Duties of That Office.

Report Confirmed in the Globe—Late Premier, in a Letter to His Constituents, Strongly Denounces Corruption, and Says, of Course, That the Ministers Had No Knowledge of or Sympathy With It. (Toronto Globe.)

The Honorable Arthur S. Hardy, Premier of Ontario, has retired from office as Premier and Attorney-General and as a member of the Legislative Assembly, and his resignation has been accepted by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor.

The Hon. Geo. W. Ross has been sworn in as Premier and has assumed the duties of the office. Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., will be called to the Cabinet to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Hardy's retirement.

In a long letter to his constituents Hon. Mr. Hardy gives utterance to some beautiful expressions regarding purity in elections. One paragraph in the letter will make interesting reading:

Circumstances of a very painful character have recently transpired, in connection with some of the bye-elections, which all must deplore, which no one can defend, and which I and my colleagues and the Liberal party as a whole unhesitatingly denounce. Neither the Government nor any member of the Government nor any Liberal member of the House had any part in them or knowledge of them or sympathy with them. Some of the methods and practices adopted were not those of the Liberal party, nor were they those of the Reform candidates, nor, as I have reason to believe of the principal organizers acting for the Liberal associations, nor were they the work of true Liberals of any class, but those of enemies of the Liberal party. My resignation does not arise from these misdeeds, however much they may be deplored, nor is it in any way connected with them, although they have somewhat delayed it.

DEATH'S ICY HAND. Was Laid Suddenly on Mrs. Lucy A. Wilson—A Victim of Heart Disease.

For some time past Mrs. Lucy A. Wilson, wife of Mr. Stuart Wilson, of Picton, has been residing alone on Charles street. Last evening about 5 o'clock her lifeless body was found lying in the yard in the rear of her premises by Mrs. Charles Middleton, a neighbor. For some time the deceased had been a sufferer from heart disease, which was the cause of her sudden demise. Mrs. Wilson, whose maiden name was Miss Lucy Smith, was a daughter of the late John Smith, and was born in this city 65 years ago. She has resided here the greater portion of her life. Mr. C. F. Smith and Miss Louise Smith, of this city, are respectively brother and sister of the deceased. She leaves a family of two sons and two daughters, namely, Charles, pursuer of steamer Alexander, James, of New York; Mrs. Bella Swinton, of Saginaw, Mich., and Mrs. Dr. Farrar, of Buffalo, N.Y. She was a lady who was well known and much respected and her demise is universally regretted. For many years she has been a member of the Presbyterian Church.

Two Kinds of Gloves. Gloves are of but two kinds, good and bad. The Oak Hall cut their "widow" teeth when they elected to carry only the good kind. The variety is wide in range, and we know you will come to see us again after buying gloves here. Prices 50c to $2.00.

THIS COON CAME DOWN. Pleading Guilty to the Charge of Breaking into a Residence. The rear portion of Mr. Wm. Finnegans' residence on Mill street was entered on Saturday night last and an overcoat, light coat, some varnish, brushes and hats were taken. The police learned that the overcoat had been sold to a party by a negro who was about the city recently. Suspicion pointed to the colored gentleman as the guilty party and yesterday he was arrested at Trenton, where he went on Monday. He was brought before the Magistrate this morning and pleaded guilty, but was unable to tell what he did with the articles, claiming he was drunk at the time. He was remanded for a week, and in the meantime an effort will be made to find out his previous character. He gave his name as John Williams, aged 28 years and a barber by trade. He claims to have come from England about two months ago.

Assaulted a Chinaman. On Sunday afternoon, July 16th, Pong Jim Lee, a Chinese laundryman of this City, was badly assaulted by a young man named Walter Flagler, who immediately left the City. He returned, and to-day gave himself up to the police. The Magistrate has issued a warrant for the assault, and in addition a suspended sentence of two months in jail.

Stole a Wrench. John Hutchison was arrested yesterday afternoon on the charge of stealing a large wrench belonging to Mr. D. H. Foster. He pleaded guilty to the charge, but being a married man with a large family he was given a suspended sentence of 30 days. The offender was intoxicated when he committed the offence.

Desperate Battle

Going on at Ladysmith--Sensational Rumors.

Boer Position Captured and Five Guns Taken--9,000 Boers Said to be Engaged.

Ladysmith, Oct. 20.—This morning Gen. Symons telegraphed that the Boers were shelling Glencoe camp with big guns. Troops moving out to attack them.

London, Oct. 20.—Despatch from Glencoe announces that Boer position had been captured after desperate fighting. Five guns were taken. Boers' strength about 9,000.

Boers, it appeared, posted guns on a hill over looking the town. They opened fire on the camp and battle became general.

Ladysmith, Oct. 20.—A despatch from Glencoe says that a Boer gun has been captured and that the Devonshire and Dor-setshire regiments are now engaging the Boers.

The news from Glencoe caused a scene of wild enthusiasm on the stock exchange and in the city generally.

London, Oct. 20.—The war office this morning received a report that Gen. Symons was wounded in the engagement at Glencoe.

London, Oct. 20.—The telegraph operator at Glencoe wires to Ladysmith "The Dublin Fusiliers silenced the first Boer battery, the Britishers going clear over the hill. Five of the Boer guns were taken. The fighting is heavy."

The British force at Glencoe number 4,000.

A Dangerous Practice.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Butler, an aged lady residing on Grove st., was partaking of her evening repast when a large stone came crashing through the window, narrowly escaping hitting her. Other stones were thrown at the house. The matter was reported to the police and as the boys who threw the stones are known they will be summoned before the Cadi.

Suspended Sentence.

County Constable S. Westover yesterday arrested a young man named Ira Gordiner at Queensboro, charged with defrauding Mr. E. Brasier out of a bicycle. It appears the accused procured a wheel and gave a lien note and then sold the wheel. As Mr. Brasier has since been secured payment Gordiner was given a suspended sentence of three months in jail.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

That the Rough Riders at Mafeking are the "real thing."

That, at last, there is some truth in the remark "Columbia's the gem of the ocean."

That "Lipton's luck," like Tarte's patriotism, may safely be termed an unknown quantity.

That Tarte wrote his political epistle when he said he would rather be a Frenchman than a British subject.

That by putting the age limit at 22 years Her Majesty loses the services of many likely young fellows in Belleville.

That the news from the Transvaal is not exactly pleasant these days. But wait; we'll warn you up in a week or two.

That the hymn, "Nothing but Leaves," would describe the condition of some of our streets just now.

That, out in Kimberley, Hon. Cecil Rhodes is humming the refrain of the once popular ditty, "They're After Me."

That, after all, there are only two bad things about cigarette smoking. One is the cigarette and the other the fellow who smokes it.

That just at present our old friend Tommy Atkins has the centre of the stage. "It's a room for Mr. Atkins when the hand begins to play."

That she has certainly been a "dear little Shamrock" to St. Thomas Lipton. About $800,000 in the hole, and hasn't got the cup after all.

That people who make bonfires of dead leaves should do so in the daytime. Some places have regulations to that effect, and if there is none in Belleville there ought to be.

People who have fires burning at night are liable to cause anxiety to their neighbors and trouble to the Fire Brigade.

That there is no need to get excited if your errand boy smokes cigarettes or your housemaid turns your wife out into the street.

These little things will happen sometimes. Put a wand ad. In the INTELLIGENCER and you'll soon find a better one. Wands are cheap and effective.

That the calling out of the Militia in Great Britain is an event of great significance. It may be intended simply as an object lesson for the world of the extent of Britain's military resources, and, on the other hand, it may preface grave events. One thing is sure, J. Bull, Esq., is not going to be caught napping.

That the Gilt papers which are so mightily indignant because unkind things are being said about Tarte are not very consistent.

No man is a "blackguard" because he knows the difference between right and wrong and speaks his mind. The only blackguard in the case is the man who defends what he knows to be wrong.

ELIAS FOXTON'S THANKSGIVING?

A Desperate Attempt at Suicide Yesterday.

Unfortunate Man Was at One Time a Resident of Belleville--His Recovery Doubtful.

Elias Foxton, a man well-known to many in this City, who of late had been making his home with various residents in the country, yesterday had apparently nothing to be thankful for and made a desperate attempt to end his existence.

He was at the home of Mrs. L. Hall, in the 7th con. of Thurlow, near the village of Plainfield. Yesterday morning he appeared to be rather melancholy, but his actions did not arouse suspicion. A member of the family going to the barn during the forenoon was horrified to find Foxton lying upon the floor with a gaping wound in his neck and a pool of blood showed that he had lost a large quantity of life's fluid. A razor lying near by was evidence of the instrument used to commit the rash act. At first it was thought that the unfortunate man was dead, but this proved not to be the case. As soon as possible, Dr. Hudson, of Rodin, was summoned and the wound was sewed up. It was an ugly cut, showing that he had made a determined effort to carry out his resolve. The jagged vein had, however, escaped injury.

At last accounts Foxton was still alive, but his recovery is by no means certain.

For some time Foxton resided in this City, being an employee at Fellows brewery and also worked at other places of business here. He is about 45 years of age and married. His wife, with two step-sons, reside in Toronto. For the past few years he had no home in particular, apparently being about the country. He has for some time been afflicted with rheumatism, which, with his surroundings, no doubt caused him to attempt to take his life.

Underwear Weather.

This is the time of year to put on warm underwear. It is cheaper to buy warm clothing than to pay the doctor's bill. The Oak Hall are offering the best value in underwear to be found in Belleville. We have the best lines at 25c and the best fleece lined at 35c. You are not bound to believe us without making the test. We invite comparison.

Thanksgiving Tea.

Bleeker street Methodist Church last night had their annual Thanksgiving tea, and despite the wet evening had a full house. The ladies had provided a sumptuous repast which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. After supper a platform meeting was held, presided over by Rev. A. Campbell. Short and appropriate addresses were given by the Chairman, Rev. C. W. Watch, Rev. J. J. Rice, pastor, and others. These were interspersed with suitable songs and choruses by the choir.

Extra Fine and Cheap.

Just received at Quick & Robertson's two cases of Extra Heavy Ribbed Underwear to sell at 25c.

The Yukon Output

Mr. H. T. Wills, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Dawson, arrived at Vancouver. When asked as to the amount of the season's output of gold from the Yukon, Mr. Wills stated that the Canadian Bank of Commerce had shipped out, including a million now at Skagway, $4,400,000, and that, he calculated, was about one fourth of the output, which he estimated at $16,000,000.

Get Your Eye on These.

Quick & Robertson's ten dollar overcoats are equal to tailor made garments at twice that price.

Wedded on Wednesday.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon at the parsonage of the Holloway st. church, where Mr. Franklin Ashley, of Hurdston, was united in marriage to Miss Mary Cadman, of Thurlow. The Rev. A. Martin performed the ceremony. The bridesmaid was Miss Osborn, of Madoc. The groom was assisted by the bride's brother, Mr. W. Cadman.

Good Blood And Sound Muscles.

Scott's Emulsion is a blood-making and strength-producing food. It removes that feeling of utter helplessness which takes possession of one when suffering from general debility.

"A Guilty Mother."

"A Guilty Mother," a great scenic drama, will be produced at the Opera House, Oct. 24th, in its captivating completeness and on a scale of magnificence superior to any drama now before the public. The play illustrates an intensely thrilling story of the conflict between scheming, villainy, and virtue. The plots and counterplots are full of action, while several scenes are tinged with an ample amount of comedy in its proper place to lighten the dark phases of the life struggle between morality and passion. The trend of the play is wholesome and teaches in thrilling object lesson the policy of vigorous persistence in forging along in a resolute and sincere way with rectitude and virtue as guiding stars. Both scenery and company are without question of doubt most above and far ahead of any attraction this season on the road.

New York and Return.

On Tuesday, October 17, special excursion will be run to New York and return via Grand Trunk R.R. and New York Central, from Belleville, at rate of $9.10 for round trip. Tickets good for 10 days stay in the Metropolis. Call at U. E. Robinson's Ticket Office for valuable information regarding the excursion.

Don't Laugh
I hear your laugh is clever and loud,
And though I cannot see
Where you are hidden in the crowd,
The cause is clear to me.

I hear you laughing with the rest
As freely as you ever,
The joke, 'tis easy to be guessed,
Is on some other man.

AFTERNOON
DESPATCHES.EVERYBODY
IN SUSPENSEEvents of the Gravest Importance
Are Taking Place.Disaster at Eldersburg Staggered the Boers Completely—Danger of Famine in Bechuanaland and Griqualand.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—In view of the watchfulness of the other powers Great Britain has begun to exercise a most rigid censorship.

No news of events in South Africa later than Sunday has reached London up to 4 o'clock this morning.

The censors apparently have stopped everything dealing with the events of the past two days, leaving only belated accounts of the battles of Friday and Saturday to pass through.

Evidently operations of the highest importance are taking place.

It is regarded as possible that Gen. Buller may yet be compelled to counsel to wait the arrival of the Army Corps.

Cape Town, Oct. 24.—Afternoon news have been received from Dundee to the effect that the Boer disaster at Eldersburg staggered the Boers completely, rendering the attack upon Dundee feeble. Therefore there is no cause for anxiety.

KIMBERLEY, Oct. 20.—All is well here and there is no fighting in progress.

Kimberley, Oct. 20.—Parties of Kaffirs returning home from Jagarobon to Kimberley are unable to do so.

Already there is a scarcity of food in the town, owing to the stoppage to the port service. Famine is almost certain.

WHAT WOLSELEY SAYS

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The Parliamentary Secretary of the War Office, Mr. George Wyndham, in the House of Commons today announced that Field Marshal Lord Wolseley, commander-in-chief of the forces, sums up the situation in Natal today as follows:

Gen. Buller has fallen back to effect a junction with Sir George Stuart White. He camped yesterday evening about 16 miles south of Dundee, without seeing anything of the enemy during the march and it has since been reported that "All's well on the Vredefort river."

Gen. Buller fought a successful action with an Orange Free State force today on the road between Ladysmith and Newcastle, and should join hands with Gen. Buller this evening.

Gen. Buller reports that his wounded are doing well.

The Boer wounded in our hands are treated just as our own and I have every reason to believe the Boers will treat us the same.

The Boers should have lived up to their reputation as long distance fighters. When they mixed things up at close quarters they soon became long distance runners.

That nearly everybody will hail with a sense of lively satisfaction the fact that today's despatches forebode the ultimate recovery of that gallant soldier, Sir W. P. Symonds.

That the residents of some of our outlying streets think they ought, at least, to have their street lamps lit. The sidewalks are dangerous when you can see where you are going in the darkness.

That it was kind of Mr. Tarte to forgive the people who have been saying hard things about him. Now, if the people can forgive Mr. Tarte for making them appear small and mean in the eyes of the Empire all will be well.

That it is the sudden changes in the climate which make our streets so hard to keep in repair. A good many people think that if there were some sudden changes in our Board of Aldermen we might have better streets next year.

That the following sickening paragraph, from the Galt Reformer, shows to what straits some Galt papers are reduced. "They are turning graves to death in Texas now. In Toronto they content themselves with burning Frenchmen to death—only in effigy, it is true; but the spirit is there, all the same."

That the City Council should follow the good example set by other towns and cities in Canada and contribute towards the fund for the relief of the Boer prisoners.

That let the boys think they are being treated in a niggardly spirit in their own home. Tarte and Lantier have thrown enough cold water on the scheme already.

We're all proud of the boy. Now, gentlemen of the City Council, show it in a substantial way.

That it is not pleasant for the people of Canada to read such news as the following, which appeared in the British-American, the New York Sun. But then, it is not the people who are to blame. Their hearts are in the right place. It's the scoundrel, weak-kneed people at the head of the Government. "The troops," says the Sun, "that go to South Africa from the Dominion are to be paid in English shillings. No exception is made. It is much cheaper for our neighbors than it is."

THE WAR SUMMARY.

Great anxiety felt regarding the situation at Eldersburg. It is known that General Buller, with a fresh force estimated at 9,000 strong, returned on Friday to the attack on Dundee and Dundee.

Gen. Buller is said to have abandoned Dundee and concentrated his forces at Eldersburg. It is believed that Gen. Buller will try to reinforce Gen. Buller's command.

Col. Buller Powell, at Mafeking, is said to have captured Gen. Cronje and thirty other Boers, besides inflicting a loss of 300 killed upon the enemy.

The news of the Boer losses at Mafeking have caused grief and consternation at Pretoria.

Russell and Franco are intriguing against Buller in the hope of catching him off his guard. The British Government is providing for eventualities, and it is understood to have the support of Germany.

Wild rumors are afloat, one being that Russia may attempt to seize Herat.

The French Mediterranean fleet, consisting of six battleships and several cruisers, left for the Levant, where it has not shown itself for two years.

The Russian Black Sea fleet could easily join it passing the Dardanelles. The British fleet is said to be waiting at Gibraltar, and convoys are being sent with the British transports sailing for South Africa.

The naval authorities are at various points have been warned to be ready. The British nation was never more ready for emergencies than she is today.

WILL SOON BE READY.

Necessary Improvements to the Home for the Friendless are Nearly Ready.

The Home for the Friendless, which has been in the process of being built for some time, is nearly ready for occupancy. The building is a fine one, and the improvements made to it will make it a first-class institution for the reception and home of those unfortunate persons in their declining years who have no permanent place of abode. It will also be the means of affording more accommodation to the hospital, as the portion of the building now used as a house will be converted into a necessary apartment for contagious diseases.

NOT TAKEN SERIOUSLY.

Paro's Claim for the Reward is Based on a Misapprehension.

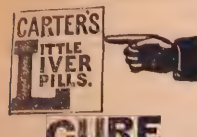

LONDON, Oct. 23.—The claim of Paro for the $10,000 reward in connection with the Napanee bank robbery is not taken very seriously at the Attorney-General's Department. Mr. Cartwright stated yesterday that it was founded on an entire misapprehension. Paro claims on the ground that he gave information which led to the arrest of Holden at the time of his arrest in Boston, whereas the reward was offered after the escape from jail.

Aluminum Lined Aerated Ovens

Are proof against the gathering of grease or dirt of any kind.

The oven is always bright and clean—no so much as a smudge to be seen anywhere.

The aerated oven makes impossible the gathering of foul odors of any kind, because pure, fresh air is ever coursing through it—the impure always crowded out.

These are reasons why the most dainty and delicate dishes of all kinds—can be cooked in an aerated oven without taking on, in any degree, the odors of other dishes.

SOUVENIRS combine every modern convenience and are "perfect stoves."

Our Agents, and you find them in every town and city, will be glad to describe this stove and oven to anyone interested.

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1899

NO. 149

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

GEN. W. P. SYMONS IMPROVING.

Bullet Has been Extracted and His Condition Better.

London Newspapers Comment on "Mysterious Retention" of the Government—Uneasiness About Gen. Yule—Another Victory at Ladysmith.

Cape Town, Oct. 25.—The bullet has been extracted from the wound suffered by Gen. Sir Wm. Penn Symonds in the first battle with the Boers at Glencoe, and as a result his condition is improving.

Four of the British wounded at Elandslaagte on Saturday have died. Five others have been reported missing.

London, Oct. 25.—A despatch to the Morning Post from Kimberley, dated the forenoon of Oct. 25, and carried by a despatch rider via the Orange River, reports a slight skirmishing and small casualties. It is believed, however, that the despatch must refer to the armored train fight at Mafeking.

No news has been received in London of fighting at Glencoe beyond the vague reports of Saturday and Sunday already cited, in which statements were made that long range firing had occurred at Dundee.

The Chronicle this morning, commenting upon the mysterious retention in regard to the war office's despatches, says:

SETTLED OUT OF COURT.

Difficulties in the Falkiner-Lazier Case Seem to Have Arisen Through a Misunderstanding.

At the Police Court this morning counsel for Mrs. Lazier and counsel for ex-Alderman Falkiner stated to the Court that the proceedings pending between them had been amicably settled, the stock certificate in question had been handed back to Mrs. Lazier, and all charges of improper conduct against ex-Alderman Falkiner were withdrawn, counsel stating that the whole difficulty had been caused through a misunderstanding of the parties and not through any wrongful intent or improper motive.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

That this is the season of the year when we are between two smells—stovepipe varnish and moth balls.

That there is a striking peculiarity about some Government employees—their weakness of them seem to have the strongest pull.

That many good ladies will have a fellow feeling for the Brockville mother whose son was determined to join the Transvaal contingent. The old lady didn't want him to go, but words were of no avail, so she had recourse to a broomstick and the boy stayed at home.

That there is one striking peculiarity about British troops. When they go into action somebody goes hurt. There are no "heroic bombardments" of several hours duration, in which only one lonely mile is numbered among the slain.

That the Toronto publishing firm which is going to give 400 copies of Kipling's works to the Canadian contingent have got considerable common sense concealed about their persons. A man ought to be willing to go anywhere and fight and really reading Rudyard Kipling's soldier stories.

That Canadians will view with pride the doings of Major Yule, upon whom the command devolved after General Symonds was wounded, at Glencoe. He is a son of the late John Yule, in his lifetime seigneur of Chantilly, in the Province of Quebec.

That the aldermen of the Limestone City did a proper and graceful act when they presented each Kingston volunteer with $25 in gold. That's the way to hearten the boys up. Good old Kingston. And do we, here in Belleville, which has been known for generations as a hot bed of patriotism, think less of our own flesh and blood than do the people of other places? Are we going to let the boys embark on their long journey with the thought ranking in their minds that the representatives of the people in their own native city don't feel the same pride in them as is shown for other men in other places. Doubtless the gentlemen of the City Council will soon take some action in the matter. It is as little as we can do to show to the boys that we approve our business to grant something substantial to those who do go, for the battle that they are going to fight is the common cause of all who enjoy the blessings of British liberty.

A Year in the Central.

John Williams, the negro who a week ago pleaded guilty to the charge of breaking into the premises of Mr. Wm. Finnegan and stealing articles of clothing and other goods, was this morning brought up for sentence. The Magistrate gave him his choice of two years in the penitentiary or one year in the Central Prison. He chose the latter.

AMUSEMENTS.

"A Guilty Mother" drew a large audience to the Theatre last night. Some of the acting was exceptionally strong, while the scenery and the set design were of a high order. The play was a very good one, and the actors were well up to the mark.

A good fitting Rubber tyre Vernitya & Son. Their stock is large and well assorted. They handle only the best grades of Rubber—VERMITYA & SON.

If You Want

THIRTY-TWO MEN LEFT KINGSTON

For Service in the Canadian Transvaal Contingent.

Full List of the Men Who Joined at Kingston—Belleville's Contingent Numbers Twelve—An Interesting Budget From the Kingston Whig.

There have been so many conflicting rumors about the men who had passed or been refused at Kingston that it was hard to get to the bottom of the matter. It is impossible to get an absolutely correct list. To-day, however, we are able to publish the official list, by which it will be seen that Belleville furnishes twelve men, being as good an average, if not better, than any other city in Canada according to population.

The INTELLIGENCER is glad to see that some of the men who were yesterday reported rejected have passed.

It was at first intended to continue recruiting at Kingston until to-day, and the Fifteenth Battalion had several men ready to go down last night, but a telegram was received that the decision had been reconsidered, and that the men who had been previously rejected would be recruited from Ottawa.

Mayor Johnson has subscribed $10 to the Patriotic fund.

Mr. Frank A. Mitchell has added $25.00 to the fund for the Belleville Transvaal contingent. This is a graceful donation, coming as it does from Mr. Mitchell, who is a United States citizen.

At the meeting of the Kingston City Council, held on Monday night, the speeches of the aldermen fairly overflowed with patriotism, and a resolution was adopted to present each of the Kingston men with $25 in gold on his departure from the Limestone City.

The following article from the Kingston Whig of Tuesday will prove highly interesting:

Military district No. 3 contributed thirty-two men towards the Canadian contingent for service in the Transvaal. Of this number Kingston furnished nine men, a fair percentage of the whole. Recruiting ceased last night, but all the applicants were retained until this morning. The following is the complete list:

G. H. Hulme, age 27, 16th Battalion.
W. W. Mills, age 24, " "
R. Cunningham, age 22, " "
G. Phillips, age 22, " "
H. Jones, age 23, " "
F. Lynn, age 22, " "
C. G. Fry, age 23, " "

C. A. Gibson, age 24, " "
A. S. L. Large, age 24, " "
J. L. Bradshaw, age 22, " "
G. Tilley, age 27, 49th Battalion.
Lieut. R. G. Stewart, age 22, 43rd Battalion.
Lieut. A. C. Caldwell, age 23, R.M.C. cadet.

J. Hutton, age 22, 14th Battalion.
G. E. Ault, age 23, " "
W. D. Swan, age 25, " "
A. J. McCormack, age 26, 14th Batt.
E. Dunlop, age 22, " "
D. Elby, age 22, " "
A. Laird, age 23, ex-member "A" Field Battery.

R. E. Walker, age 23, 16th Field Battery.
R. H. Turner, age 22, 41st Battalion.
R. J. Hagan, age 25, " "
G. Donaldson, age 22, " "
W. H. Foden, age 23, 47th Battalion.
W. W. Lawrence, age 26, 57th Battalion.
G. G. Cockburn, age 22, Garrison Artillery.
H. G. Bolster, age 23, Garrison Artillery.

T. J. Turpin, age 24, Garrison Artillery.
A. L. Rose, 30th Battalion.
J. Major, age 27, 50th Battalion.

James E. Bradshaw is well known in Kingston, having been a clerk in the local branch of the Standard Bank, being recruited last summer many were physically perfect but were either under age or under 5'10".

Lieut. Gordon Glencoe Hulme is an officer in the 14th Battalion, Belleville, but resigned his commission and accepted a place in the ranks of the Canadian Transvaal contingent. He will yet be heard from as a gallant warrior, as he is determined to come back with the Victoria cross or some similar honor if the opportunity offers.

This morning T. Wright (fostered his famous lucky rabbit's foot on Lieut. Hulme's watch chain as a token of good luck. Mr. Wright wore the charm all through the north-west rebellion in 1885 and in many other little skirmishes with the Indians and always came out of the trouble scot-free. Lieut. Hulme promised to return the charm.

Out of fifty-six volunteers offered for examination, thirty-three were accepted and twenty-three told to stand aside. Of the last number many were physically perfect but were either under age or under 5'10".

Non-commissioned officers and men who are married will be granted a separation allowance from the date of embarkation in Canada until the date of disembarkation on their return, and the permanent corps of 100 men per diem. Each girl under the age of sixteen years, five cents per diem. Each boy under the age of fourteen years, five cents per diem. The wives and families of non-commissioned officers and men on the married establishment of the permanent corps will be permitted to remain in their quarters and to draw rations until the return of this force to Canada.

The men will fare well on board ship. The ration will be one pound of meat per day, besides salt and canned meat, fish, potatoes, and other vegetables, green and dried fruit, apples, preserves, butter, cheese, coffee, tea, peas and beans. Puddings will be served two or three times a week, and there will be a double ration of sugar on pudding days.

Souvenir Stoves

It is beyond intelligent dispute that more money and skill is expended on the construction of the

Aerated Ovens

are much superior to the ordinary ones as to be beyond comparison. For Fifty-six Years our stoves have been very largely used - not a household in this broad Dominion but trades in Souvenirs. Unequaled experience, large facilities, and special opportunities make great results possible. We claim for Souvenir Ranges that they have reached perfection, that is, so far as perfection is known in the science and art of stove building of today. The Aerated Oven is only one of their many special features. Sold by leading dealers everywhere.

- 1—MAJUBA HILL.—When General Kitchener beat to the ground the power of the Khulifa at the battle of Omdurman, he thereby avenged the death of Gordon. So in this British-Boer Campaign the British Generals are looked to, to see that Majuba Hill be not forgotten. That defeat by the Boers rankles still in the British breast. In 1881 the Boers surrounded the British force at this point, and from over-hanging hills poured in volley after volley till annihilation was almost complete. When the present war is over Majuba Hill will surely be in evidence!

Anxiety About Mafeking.

Thought in London that Baden-Powell's Little Force Has Been Overpowered.

Brilliant Success at Kimbourn—Lancashires Charged With the Bayonet—Reinforcements Expected to Arrive on Saturday.

Cape Town, Oct. 27.—Details of fighting about Kimbourn indicate that a smart engagement between the Boers and British took place outside the town.

The British, commanded by Col. Scott Turner, advanced from the town, protected by an armoured train. A second train followed, carrying ammunition. Col. Scott Turner was seen reinforced by Col. Murray, leading a force of troops with two Maxims.

A force of Boers was encountered. The Maxims and the armoured train in the Boer ranks, and they returned the artillery fire unceasingly.

The first armoured train, with 150 men on board, was then run forward and at the same time the Lancashire regiment, under cover of the Maxims, charged and drove the Boers hither and thither.

A number of Boers were bayoneted. Commander Botha and many Boers were killed.

The British loss was 3 killed and 21 wounded. The engagement was a brilliant success for the British forces.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

That many people are studying geography more than the scriptures these days.

That the wheeling season will soon be over, and if you keep your bicycle in a room where an even temperature is kept the tires will last a good deal longer.

That ex-Premier Hardy's friends don't need to worry about his future, even if he fails to retire owing to ill-health. He feels well enough to hold a deal office and draw two full salaries amounting to $3,400 a year.

That the relatives and friends of the boys who are going will be glad to see that they are high while on the steamy ocean, anyway. Only think of a double round of "war on pudding days!" It is just possible that some of the boys may not care for pudding for a few days after they get to sea.

For War

Keen eyesight is necessary. Any deficiency in this respect is a sufficient cause of rejection from the Canadian contingent of the British Expeditionary Force. Many cases of deficient sight may be overcome by using corrected eyes with the proper glasses. Many children suffer from head aches, etc., when attending school and perhaps get behind in their studies and are unable to be called stupid, all because of defective eyes. It is a sad case when eyes are not fitted with the proper glasses.

We make no charge for testing.

Paine's Colery Compound and that is so true, that it is the best remedy for all the ailments from our heat people. Paine's Colery Compound among other blessings gives firmer and more perfect circulation, and a more complete digestion, and a sweeter breath, and more regular bodily functions. These blessings are always given by Paine's Colery Compound, and when other remedies fail.

It is foolish and criminal to neglect all dryness, pains and the unimpeachable symptoms of cholera, until it is too late. It is well known that a few bottles of Paine's Colery Compound will completely banish every cholera, and a restoration of health that guarantees a long and happy life.

Every man or woman whose nervous strength is overtaxed, or whose life is a battle with mental worries, will soon feel the invigorating and refreshing effects of one or two bottles of warrior's health giver, and two his or her health improved. Let the first dose of this greatest of all remedies.

Big Battle Raging

18,000 Boers Are Attacking British at Ladysmith.

Enemy's Artillery Was Silenced by British Gunners
A Tom Fool Story from Holland.

LADYSMITH, Oct. 30, 11:50 a.m.—Firing commenced at 5:30 this morning, the Boers shelling Ladysmith with forty pounders. After several shots the British guns ceased in silencing the Boer fire. A force of Boers is now advancing on the British left flank.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The Journal prints the following cable:
LADYSMITH, Oct. 29, 10:15 p.m.—An express message says the Boers are concentrating just north of Ladysmith, three miles distant. They are in three camps, and a big battle will probably take place in the morning.

The enemy are mounting guns and their line extends in a semi-circle from east to west. Communication is still open to the south. The war balloons arrived yesterday and several ascents were made to day. Gen. White and Hunter went up and observed the enemy's position.

The British forces are in good condition and enthusiastic for battle. Kruger is reported to be with Gen. Joubert, and may lead the fight to-morrow. There was some doubtful skirmishing to-day between the outposts of the Newcastle road, but it was a quiet Sunday.

The Boers and British are apparently at rest before the great struggle which must come in the morning. Gen. Buller's force has recovered from the effects of the forced march, but unfortunately lost their kits. The weather is rainy and the balloon observers report the Boers working around to the southwest, fortifying and placing guns. It is reported that the Boer plan of battle will be similar to that at Dundee. Heavy guns are being mounted on the commanding hills under Joubert's orders. Boers have 18,000 men.

LONDON, October 30.—Mafeking bombarded for three hours, Oct. 23, without result.

Boers lost 500 killed and wounded in fight near Glencoe on Oct. 20.

FRANKFURT, Oct. 27. (Delayed)—It is reported here that the town of Mafeking, which is being besieged by Gen. Cronje, is in flames.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The despatch from Ladysmith this morning, which was sent at express rates, came through in the remarkable time of two hours.

It shows the crisis which the present stage of the operations have reached, and that the expected attack on Ladysmith by the joint Boer forces has opened.

A despatch from Durban, timed 9:50 this morning, states that the Boers' shells were chiefly directed at the stations, and that no damage was done up to the time the message from Durban was forwarded.

WOULD YOU THIS MORNING?

BELLEVILLE, Oct. 30.—A despatch received here from Holland says that the British army at Ladysmith has surrendered and that the troops are now prisoners of war.

Obituary.

DAVID J. CALLAGHAN.
After about two weeks' illness Mr. David J. Callaghan died at 7 o'clock on Sunday morning from an attack of typhoid fever. The deceased had for some time been conducting the O'Brien House on Front st., a well-known hotel. Mr. Callaghan was born in this city nearly 41 years ago and all his life has been spent here. For many years he was a trusted engineer on the G.T.R. after which he went into the hotel business. He married a few years ago Miss Alice Lawler, of Cobourg, who with three young sons survive. Deceased was a member of the Catholic Order of Foresters and O.M.B.A., under whose auspices he was buried to-morrow morning. He was a man who made many friends and his demise will be universally regretted.

Mr. Wardhaugh Objects.
The following letter explains itself:
SIR,—In last Tuesday night's issue it was stated that Gordon Wardhaugh and a man named Coffin were in business on Front st. in a store owned by H. Vennman called the American Bazaar. I wish to state that I had no interest in the business, that I was merely a clerk, and also that I had not been working for Coffin for two weeks before he sold out.

Committed for Trial.
The case of Win. Hoffman, accused of an indecent assault upon a young woman named Edith Bennett, was investigated before the P.M. this morning and resulted in the accused being committed for trial. Both parties reside in the City. Mr. P. M. Anderson for Crown and W. P. McMahon for defendant.

GOD-SPEED AND BON VOYAGE

Canadian Contingent Left
Quebec This Afternoon.

Got a Most Enthusiastic Send-off From Thousands of People—Many Messages and Parcels Taken to Quebec
by Col. Ponton.

(Special to the INTELLIGENCER.)
Quebec, Oct. 30.—The Canadian contingent went aboard the Sardinian at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

It received the most enthusiastic send-off imaginable.

Crowds of citizens, reinforced by thousands of visitors, lined the streets on the route of the parade and vigorously cheered the troops as they passed along, escorted by all the local regiments.

The Sardinian will be ready to sail at 3 o'clock.

The money subscribed by our citizens to the emergency fund, a record of which has been made in these columns, has been placed in the hands of Col. Ouse, and should be acknowledged as soon as possible.

Major J. Lyons Biggar has reconsidered his determination not to accept the appointment offered him, and went to Quebec by the noon train yesterday, with the intention of joining the Transvaal force if his political views will open.

Letters have been received from members of the Belleville contingent in which they wish to return thanks to Mr. Th. McElmish for his generous gift of $30.

The despatch which left for Quebec yesterday to see the boys off consisted of Major Johnson, Sir Mackenzie Bowell, Majors Pope and Donald, and Captain Stewart.

Though the boys are lost to sight they are not forgotten. The boys of the Col. Ponton took upwards of fifty letters and parcels to the boys from friends and relatives.

The following table of distances will be of interest.

The Song of the Sons.
We are coming, gun and sword!
We are coming, heart and hand!
And the light of our eyes is the flag that flies
For England—Motherland!

We are coming now, old Lion,
We've heard your lusty roar!
And it's only a step, after all,
To the Mother's threatened door!

Did you know we were all so near?
Did you think we'd ever when you called?
We who are far as the pine and palm
From your island, from your wall!

Was ever a love like ours
In all the ancient East?
Was ever a voice like yours
Since seas to the hills gave birth?

A voice that could wake at a call
The ends of the earth, and bring
The Children home to the Mother,
Fleet as the birds that wing.

Oh, hear the fall of our feet,
With the course of the ancient sun,
We are coming, hand and heart,
Esger in day and sun!

The seas are but stepping stones
To the pathway, primrose-blown,
Where the Mother sits in mild distress
Asking help from her own.

This is not time for tears;
We are big with the spirit of old!
The truth of the lesson is best—
Too long our hands withheld!

No voice but yours we hear,
And the roaring drums that beat
From North and South, from East and West,
To the tramp of British feet.

We are coming, gun and sword!
We are coming, heart and hand!
And the light of our eyes is the flag that flies
For England—Motherland!

Fairies are "shod with light," but VICI KID wearers are shod with lightness.

The marvel is that kid so fine and soft can be so tough and durable and wet-proof. Robert If Forer-dor alone has the secret of Vici Kid, and of Vici Dressing and Vici Polish.

During the week we have a ladies' maid teaching at the store the right way to dress shoes, and giving valuable hints as to the care of them. Those who learn the lesson we teach get greater satisfaction and double wear from their shoes.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

A Terrible Disaster

Seems to Have Befallen the British at Ladysmith.

Two Regiments of Infantry and a Battery of Artillery Surrounded and Forced to Surrender After Heavy Losses—General White's Manly Admission.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—General White telegraphs that Royal Irish Fusiliers, No. 10 Mounted Train Battery and the Gloucestershire Regiment were surrounded in the hills, and, after losing heavily, were obliged to capitulate.

Following is the text of Gen. White's despatch: "I have to report a disaster to the column sent by me to take a position on a hill to guard the left flank of the troops. In these operations to-day the Royal Irish Fusiliers, No. 10 Mounted Battery and the Gloucestershire Regiment were surrounded in the hills, and after losing heavily, had to capitulate.

The casualties have not yet been ascertained. A number of the Fusiliers, employed as a hospital orderly, came in under a flag of truce with a letter from the survivors of the column, who asked for—

THE WAR SUMMARY.
General White's whole force attacked the Boers concentrating on Ladysmith yesterday.

The enemy were driven back for several miles, suffering considerable loss. The British casualties are placed at between 80 and 100 killed and wounded.

So far the Boer artillery, which was heavier than the British field artillery, was silenced by the guns of the naval brigade.

The guns of a British mountain battery, sent out the night before, were lost owing to the mules stampeding.

Two battalions supporting the guns had not returned to camp at a late hour, though expected to do so last night.

The Canadian contingent called from Quebec yesterday afternoon.

General Sir Redvers Buller's staff arrived at Cape Town.

Royal Irish Fusiliers, No. 10 Mounted Train Battery and the Gloucestershire Regiment have been surrounded and forced to surrender.

A YOUNG MAN'S RASH ACT.

James Gillespie Cuts His Throat With a Razor.

Desperate Attempt to End His Existence—The Unfortunate a Resident of Plainfield—His Condition is Critical.

For the second time within the brief period of two weeks, the residents of the village of Plainfield have been startled and horrified at the attempt of two of its inhabitants to take their lives. On Thanksgiving Day Elias Foxton gashed his throat, and yesterday afternoon a young man named James Gillespie did the same act.

The latter unfortunate is a son of the late Mr. John Gillespie, and is but 21 years of age. The family are highly respectable people, and the affair is keenly felt by them. It appears that the victim is not of sound mind, and it is also alleged that recently his mind had been somewhat unbalanced by religious matters. Although acting somewhat strangely, the members of the family little dreamed that he would do so rash an act.

Between the hours of 1 and 2 o'clock he went to the barn and went up in the hay mow, where he made a determined effort upon his life. With a razor he gashed his throat in three places, one of the cuts penetrating into the windpipe. After the commission of the deed Gillespie must have remained there for some time as there was a large pool of blood upon the hay and it had also dropped upon the barn floor. Covered with blood, James staggered towards the door, and would have fallen before he reached it through weakness had he not been assisted. As soon as possible the services of Dr. Hudson, of Roslin, were brought into requisition, and he did all he could for the sufferer. The wounds made were ghastly, requiring a number of stitches to be placed in them. The doctor gave it as his opinion that the young man could not survive, but this morning he was still alive, but his condition was critical.

The unfortunate affair caused great excitement, and universal sympathy was expressed towards the mother, with whom he resided. There is no doubt that the young man when he committed the act was in a state of melancholy, not realizing the gravity of the offense.

HOLOCAUST AT MONTREAL.
Large Hotel on Fire Early This Morning.

The Sad Case of John Benbow, Now Dead in the Hospital, While His Son is En Route to Africa.
(Special to the INTELLIGENCER.)

MONTREAL, Oct. 31.—The Webster House, corner St. James and Cathedral streets, was gutted by fire early this morning. Several persons were burned to death and a number of others were injured by jumping from windows. So far three charred bodies have been taken from the ruins.

A man believed to be John Benbow, of Ottawa, whose son was one of the Transvaal contingent, and who was on his way from seeing his son off at Quebec, is dead at the Notre Dame hospital.

Three other persons are reported at the General Hospital, suffering from injuries. The fire broke out about 5:15, when everybody about the house was asleep. It is supposed to have started from an overheated furnace.

The servants connected with the hotel were quarantined about the kitchen and it is among them that the majority of fatalities occurred.

BY FRED WHISHAW.

father disappeared. Cannot explain. Cause not possible. I want you, Alvin, to make arrangements to return here if I happen to be in London.

Dear mother! She must indeed have been in a state of mind to have sent me such a message as that!

She wanted me, however. That was enough. She must have me, poor dear, as quickly as the railway could take me to her. Of course I ought to have gone.

There was time enough for Oxford. The flashing express started from Victoria at 8:30 tonight. I should catch it without fail. Poor dear old mother in distress and father disappeared!

When a man disappears in England or America, one goes and drags the nearest pond and gives notice at the police station in Russia? Alas, a man may disappear in many ways in our country—by accident, for though but a few years have passed since the time of which I write, things are improving by leaps and bounds; light is spreading—God's light of civilization. One's first thought in such a case as my father's would, of course, be a mixed one—spies, nihilists, police, Siberia. I passed rapidly in my thought over all these things in the first shock of that word "disappeared."

But I banished the idea with scorn. My father stood high above such matters. He lived in an atmosphere wherein such matters had no existence. He had no cause to fear either the police or the revolutionists. He was beloved by his countrymen, for he was an enlightened and intelligent landlord. In the country he was a power. In town he was universally respected. He took no part in politics, however, and could scarcely therefore come under the ban either of those who hated or of those who administered the law.

In a word, it was hopeless to attempt to conjecture what the meaning of my mother's message could be. Such attempts led to a feeling of helplessness, and I tried to postpone all consideration of the matter.

I went for a walk in Kensington gardens to pass away the time, and it was while standing gaily on the shores of the Round pond, watching the sailing of some tiny yachts, that some one touched me on the shoulder. I turned and saw Percy Morris, the most unexpected and yet perhaps the most entirely welcome person I could possibly have seen at the moment, for Percy was—had been—my greatest friend at school.

He had left last term on account of his father's death and his mother's unexpected poverty, and I had missed him badly. He had "seen" Russia with me more than once during the summer vacation, and I felt that an outpouring of my story into his sympathetic ears—for he knew my people—would do me a heap of good. I showed him my telegram. He started.

"Why, man alive," he said, "I saw your father this very afternoon. I thought you must be staying up here with him and was just going to ask you about it."

CHAPTER II.

THE COUNT'S DOUBT.

When Percy told this astonishing announcement, I snatched into one of the seats that surrounded the pond. It was too bewilderingly unexpected. I felt for a moment as utterly helpless and amazed that I must either laugh or cry.

"Impossible!" I gasped. "You could not have old man. Why, how could the dear old governor—no! It's impossible! You didn't speak to him!"

"Yes, I did. I met him in Oxford street and caught him and said, 'Zdravstvuyte!' (Good morning, count), and—well, he seemed a bit surprised and looked me over as though he didn't recognize me, but he returned my salutation."

"Go on," I said, "in heaven's name! What did he say then—where did he go?"

"That's the funny part of it," said Percy. "He didn't stop to talk, and your father is generally so kind and nice. Instead of taking my arm and having a chat and probably standing me presently a rare liqueur as usual—jumped into a hansom and drove away."

"I can't believe it of old dad, Percy," I said. "You must have been mistaken, old man; you mistook some one else for him."

"His double, then, and another Russian, too, for he answered in Russian, 'Zdravstvuyte!' but of course that might be a coincidence, if it were not that I am ready to swear to it that he was my father and no other, or almost ready, perhaps I ought to say."

I jumped at the little point of implied uncertainty.

"Ah—almost! You are not absolutely certain, then?"

"Well, to be entirely straight!—Percy hesitated—I remember now noticing—well, you know how very particular your father is about dress, and so on. Today he did look different in that respect. He wore a Tyrolean hat and a red velvet coat; he didn't look—you know—quite so distinguished as usual—that's all—and he hadn't shaved."

"Then I'd swear it wasn't dad," I cried. "For the dear old man would never permit them to walk up to him looking like the booby you describe!"

"Oxford street," Percy corrected.

"Or even Oxford street," said I.

"Just stop, old chap! You seem to be anxious it shouldn't be your father," said Percy, puzzled by my attitude.

"Well, you father knew he was over here, wife and all well, than—well— heaven knows where?"

"The thing is," I tried to explain, "I shouldn't like to think he was here, free on his own hook, as it were, because then, why shouldn't mother know about it, and I and all the world for the matter of that? It would mean that the dear old man had gone dotty, you know, and I'd almost rather anything had happened than that!"

"I see," said Percy, and we walked on a while in silence, taking the nearest route to my hotel. I told my friend my intention of dining tonight, and he promised to dine early with us and see me off at 9:30.

"Hang it!" he said presently, "with I was going with you. Dye."

know this is the most hopeless place in the world to find anything to do in. There are nearly always matches at Lord's or the Oval," I said, "and there are the theaters!"

"I mean you," he explained—"a living, I can get £1 a week as a clerk in the city and that's the best offer I've had as yet. Jolly prospect, isn't it?"

What a selfish brute I was, for the last hour I had talked hard about my own affairs and had never even thought of asking after him. Yet he was very bold of, indeed, I had heard, and as his words showed, he was without immediate prospect of employment.

"I most heartily wish you were coming over with me," I said. "Look here, I added, 'Why not come?'"

"Oh, I couldn't!" he laughed. "Matters—my affairs are too important for that or rather my want of affairs!"

"Well, but—" I said, struck with a sudden idea. "We shall require a steward and a butler, and the old dad turns up again to look after things. Why not come and help me? I promise you a fair reward if my dear old mother has anything to do with it, which she certainly will."

"Don't tempt me too soon, or I shall fall!" he laughed.

Then I went at him with tooth and nail and almost compelled him to accept the suggestion, and presently he did consent. He could not be ready, he said, in time to start with me tonight, but he would come tomorrow or next day. By that time he would get his passport and luggage together. It was rather short notice and might be a bit of a shock to his mother, but she would quite understand. "Yes, old man," he ended, "I'm on for it."

This decision of Percy's comforted me greatly, for I was very fond indeed of him.

BUFFALO GETTING SCARED.

Deepening of St. Lawrence Canals Causes Consternation.

Black City Shipping Men Will Now Likely Besiege Washington in the Effort to Get the Government to Take the Erie Canal in Hand and Deepen It—Trade With Other Countries.

Buffalo, Oct. 31.—The seriousness of the St. Lawrence problem and the action by public opinion in this city to secure the government to take the Erie Canal in hand and deepen it—trade with other countries. The St. Lawrence route, particularly Mr. Tarte's statement that the government had spent $90,000,000 on canals and were prepared to spend millions more to divert trade to the canals, has forced upon the business men of Buffalo the full significance of the competition to be expected by the St. Lawrence route, now that a 14-foot depth between Port Colborne and Montreal has been attained. Local interest is intensified by the knowledge that a Buffalo syndicate, with undoubted power to divert the grain trade to the St. Lawrence route, is in conjunction with the Dominion Government for a concession which will enable them to acquire the St. Lawrence route, the greatest commercial highway on the continent. The superiority of the St. Lawrence route is no longer questioned. It is beyond doubt now that Congress will be besieged this session with demands to take over the Erie Canal and make every possible effort to prevent successful competition by the St. Lawrence canal route.

CAPT. BENGOUGH DEAD.

Death of the Father of Cartoonist Bengough in Toronto.

Toronto, Oct. 31.—Captain John Bengough died at his residence, 634 Church street, yesterday morning. He had passed his 80th birthday on May 28 last, being within a day the age of Queen Victoria. Bengough, the cartoonist, George Bengough, insurance agent in London, Bengough, official court reporter, James Bengough, mechanical superintendent of the Erie Canal Company, Niagara Falls, N.Y., and William Bengough, artist, now in the Philippines, the New York Morning Journal.

SOUVENIR..

THE cook in the kitchen, with years of experience backing her, will know to a turn how much of each article is needed to give perfection to the dainty dish she has in preparation. Then comes the cooking. Here the rub—here's where the daintiest dish comes to grief in an ordinary oven.

A constant rushing of pure, fresh air throughout the kitchen oven makes impossible the retaining of any flavors that may have come from the foods previously cooked, whilst the fact that these ovens are lined with aluminum makes it impossible that anything adhere to them. Never any disappointment where a Souvenir is installed in the kitchen.

For the cooking you are welcome to a copy of a pretty little booklet entitled "Kitchen Wisdom" illustrated by J. W. Bengough and J. B. Gordon, which tells you more about this wonderful appliance oven.
